The undersigned has been duly appointed Agent of the above named companies, and is now prepared to take risks and issue policies upon all kinds of insurable property at the lowest rates, and consequently you will have no losses on your own of the same class, and all will be on an equal footing.

We believe it to be for the interest of the farmers to insure by themselves, their property being less hazardous than any other, and consequently you will have no losses on your own of the same class, and all will be on an equal footing.

Experience has shown that two-thirds, if not three-fourths of all the stock that is lost on farms, taverns, mills, shops and such like property, in this country has been lost by fire. In this country this kind of property is rejected positively, by LETTING THEM ALONE.

Farmers, look to your own interest, and insure in a Farmers' Company.

We have been doing business a little over three years, and we have not been obliged to assess our premium notes, and for the last fourteen months we have not had a single dollar loss, though doing a large and prosperous business, which we believe to be without a parallel in the history of insurance.

The electors of Rock county who are determined to support no man for office who is not positively and fully committed to the support of the principles announced in the "Republican Platform" adopted at Madison on the 18th of July last, and whose personal character, political associations and private conduct, do not afford a guarantee that he is reliable, are invited to meet in their respective townships or wards at the place of holding the last township or ward election, on Tuesday, 10th day of October next, at 9 o'clock P. At the same time and place above designated in the respective towns and wards for meetings, to choose delegates to the county convention, the Republican electors of the wards of the city of Janesville, and of the towns in this county comprised in the 17th senatorial district, are requested to select an equal number of delegates to which they are entitled under the above appointment in the county convention, to represent them in a senatorial convention hereby called at the Court House in Janesville, on THURSDAY the 12th day of October next at 11 o'clock A. By order of the County Committee.

COUNTY FAIR.—We were able yesterday to make a flying visit to the fair grounds, but unable to make an examination of anything, or even see a large part of the articles on exhibition. The attendance was very large, and the fair generally a decided advance on any former one. Persons who were at the state fair at Watertown last fall, report this as superior to it. We shall publish as soon as we receive them, the proceedings of the society on the grounds, the result of the plowing and spading matches, and the award of premiums to exhibitors.

We are glad to notice that the work upon the upper bridge has been resumed. How long it will take to accomplish it thus by piecemeal, it is hard to calculate. Its condition for a long time past has been far from creditable to the city, and it has been no small obstruction to business and travel. We hope to see the work prosecuted with energy, that it may be available for a portion of the business season.

The work of paving Main street is progressing finely, and we believe is of a substantial and durable character, reflecting credit upon the energetic contractor.

If the several factions of the "democracy" of this state have an occasional "bout" between discordant parts, there is a pleasant agreement among concurring sections. Here is an instance. The Waukesha Plaindealer, in the course of friendly notice of senator Isaac P. Walker, says—

"His influence, aside from that given him by his vote, has amounted to nothing, and he has in the main, played only the part of a figure in a tailor's window—a lifeless representation of what he was not."

This sentiment the Racine County Democrat quotes, and thus endorses:

"Pity 'tis, 'tis true." But yet, now that the man is dead, would it not be more christianlike to allow him to 'depart in peace'?"

That is harmony, sure, whether it is truth, or not.

One of Dr. Elder's sharp sayings is "that the democratic party holds the government from the proprietors in fee, and the whig party has a sort of tinker's lien upon it for repairs."

Insignificant as our "democratic" brothers seem to consider the lien upon their estate, the property encumbered is unable to pay the demand against it and is about to pass into other hands to satisfy the claims created by their mismanagement and abuse of trust.

"WISCONSIN HOME."—The first number of this paper has been laid upon our table. It is well printed, conveniently "made up" for binding, and is certainly worth the money asked for it. Our readers are familiar with its character, its prospectus having been published for some weeks in our columns. We hope Mr. Doty will find his "Home" not only a pleasant, but a profitable enterprise.

STAGE OFFICE.—The stage office is now kept in the old post office, next door to the American hotel, where the railroad office is also kept. The room has been neatly refitted, and is very convenient for travelers, whose wants will be well attended to by Messrs. Keeler and Davis.

We have examined a superb set of coach harness, intended for exhibition at the fair, made at the shop of J. M. Riker, of this city. The work was mostly executed by Mr. W. S. Chase, and as a specimen of fine, costly workmanship, it is superior to any thing of the kind we have before seen.

MAINE ELECTION.—The telegraph continues to report an anti-Nebraska triumph. Morrill elected governor by the people, and legislature "all right." Congressmen, ditto. Remembering that our best news comes first, we had rather wait and see the full returns, before rejoicing too hard.

No SMOKING.—As two young gentlemen were walking up Tremont street, yesterday afternoon, each puffing furiously a cigar, they came in close neighborhood with two well dressed ladies, who evinced anything but pleasure at the fumigation. As the two parties came abreast of each other, in passing, one of the ladies very dexterously, with her parasol, knocked the cigar out of the mouth of one of the blooding, which striking the cheek of the other, caused quite a blister to manifest itself. The spectators laughed—the young ladies quietly smiled—the young chaps looked various ways—but every one present saw that the lady had too strong a cause to back-er (tobacco) to prevent any hostile demonstrations on the part of the male sufferers.—Boston Times.

We can understand how an incident of this character could please a crowd in the street, and why "hostile demonstrations" should be foreborne on the part of the sufferers. One of the "rights" of women in this country is perfect impunity in the practice or in the attempt of any rudeness they may fancy to commit; and yet these Boston "ladies" were guilty of a real offence, and if they had been men, would have been called to account for their misconduct. To illustrate the principle involved, suppose a couple of men meet in the street a couple of women so strongly scented with musk or other perfume from the toilet, (as many of them are,) as to be offensive and pollute the air with a disagreeable odor, and these men should quietly eject from the sidewalk or sprinkle with a disinfectant the objects of their dislike, would such an action be looked upon as gentlemanly, the perpetrators treated with smiles, and the sufferers prevented from resenting the insult? For ourselves, we can't see the difference between the cigar and musk nuisance, and if one is to be tolerated as a "right," the other ought to have the same chance. If the women are to use their parasols, the men must resort to the sprinkler.

A CARD.—The undersigned, being satisfied of the fact, that the Protection Insurance Company, of Hartford, Conn., has made an assignment, deems it his duty to his patrons and friends, to announce the fact, unpleasant and unexpected, as the necessity is to him. If those holding policies in the Protection will call at my office, the best arrangement possible, for their transfer into other companies, shall at once be made. I should be unjust to myself, and ungrateful to my customers, did I not take this occasion to return my sincerest thanks for the handsome, courteous, and generous manner in which I have been treated, by those with whom I have conversed on the subject, since yesterday morning, when the fact first became known to me.

GEORGE S. DODGE.

Judge Spooner is a man of unimpeachable integrity, of excellent mind, of approved knowledge as a legislator, and has long since won the respect of political friends and enemies. His nomination, too, must have been a free-will offering of the delegates, for he would never stoop to beg an office, nor will he stoop to work for his election, in the usual manner of mere politicians. His opinions will be given without reserve, and he will leave the rest to others. If elected, he will be, we think, an industrious member of congress. We know he will be an honest one, but he will never be one of those who will make money out of the berth.—Standard.

The Standard does a manly and honorable act in thus frankly bearing testimony to the merits of Judge Spooner. We hope we shall not have equal reason to endorse the correctness of its opinion that a local feeling and vote in Milwaukee will defeat him, though we are aware that elections in former years seem to warrant it.

ACCIDENT.—The morning stage from this city to Afton Wednesday morning was overturned near the residence of Mr. J. P. Sears, on the river, and several of the passengers injured. Among the passengers were Judge Holmes, one of the earliest settlers of the town, his wife, and Mrs. Volney Atwood (a daughter of Judge H.) and child. The family had started on a visit to friends in Michigan, and left in the morning stage in order to reach their destination before night. The shoulder of Mrs. Holmes was dislocated, and other injuries inflicted, and Judge H. and Mrs. Atwood and child were slightly bruised. Mrs. H. was taken to the house of Mr. Sears, where she received proper treatment, and her husband and daughter remained to attend her.

FOND DU LAC UNION.—This paper gives outward signs of prosperity. The last number came to us in a new dress, and with a general look of satisfaction with itself and the world. Mr. Thomas, the founder of it, has associated Mr. A. J. Reed with him in its publication, and will aim to give it additional claims to a remunerating support. Its politics are not according to our way of thinking, but its political discussions are conducted with good temper and as near fairness as we expect generally to find in a paper which supports the Nebraska side of the question now before the people.

MERCHANDISE FOR JANESVILLE.—Per steamer Arctic, at Milwaukee, Ecstorn & Bro. and O. B. Foote; per propeller Forest City, R. Hodge and J. A. Wood.

VERMONT.—This state has gone right without any doubt; the only question is by how great a majority, and this we leave to be told hereafter.

A FRIENDLY WORD TO LADIES.—We are no advocates of arts and attitudes practiced before the glass, but if ladies will raise their dresses in the streets—as it is evident they will—it is important that they should do it skillfully, daintily, and in such a manner as to display neither more or less than is intended. As a modest man, therefore, we would have them perfect themselves in the practice at home. A day or two since, we saw a divinity transformed into a dowdy for neglecting to do this. In walking from Rockwood's to State street with her dress raised to about the standard altitude, instead of displaying a pretty foot and ankle, immodestly and surely dignity, as she evidently intended, she showed merely a hand's breadth of yellow flannel.—Springfield Republican.

WISCONSIN.—The whigs continue to show their dishonesty and insincerity in proclaiming the Nebraska question the principal issue in the election of members of congress. The entire Wisconsin delegation, it is well known, opposed and voted against the bill in all its stages. But notwithstanding this, the whigs have held what they call a republican convention in the first district, and nominated Wyman Spooner, Esq., of Walworth county, as their candidate for congress. The notorious S. M. Booth was his principal competitor. This action, in connection with others of the same sort, show the animus of the whig leaders. If they can make the anti-Nebraska excitement subservient to their own purposes, it is all well. But the democrats of Wisconsin have no occasion to vote for a whig. Their own men are "good and true" on this question, and it is their duty to sustain them.—Chicago Democrat.

This is all very well for Mr. Wentworth "to say to the marines," but no one knows better than he how the Wisconsin delegation halted, and how they have voted, had they dared, upon the Nebraska bill.

Had Mr. Pierce been in need of their votes, he could have gotten them as certainly as he could that of Mr. Wentworth, himself. It is not such representatives, the people of Wisconsin want. The anti-Nebraska party must have candidates like Caesar's wife, "above suspicion," and they are not going to peril the cause of freedom by trusting any other.

Does our neighbor suppose that the people are ignorant of the hesitancy and non-commitment of Mr. Wells on this question, up to the last moment? or that they have such unbounded confidence in the purity, integrity and honesty of John B. Macy, that they will have no one else to represent his district but him?

Mr. W. is not going to pick his way back into congress with any such skeleton key as that, and he might as well make up his mind to it. Wisconsin will do the fair thing with her representatives. We have every confidence in that noble young state. Most of her politicians thus far, have been a disgrace to her.

Her people are right and will redeem themselves in the coming struggle. Wisconsin has the honor of being the first state to strike the first blow, at the loathsome fugitive slave bill. Her chief justice has done her exalted honor among the free states of the north, and she will do herself additional honor by sloughing off the dead skin politicians, which meanly and tamely represent her in congress, and whom Mr. Wentworth is seized with such a sudden admiration for.

How could the republicans of the first district nominate a man who was put up by the hunkers to defeat Charles Durkee, the best representative Wisconsin ever had! The only one of this "entire Wisconsin delegation" who seems to have acted with any manliness or honesty on the Nebraska question was Ben. C. Eastman, of the second district. If we remember right Mr. John B. Macy, came among the "absent or not voting," on this bill. Does Mr. Wentworth have any such recollection?

It will never do. These indifferent gentlemen are not wanted any longer at Washington. Much less are those wanted who go nosing around to see which way matters are likely to turn, and what kind of a vote will fill the largest pocket.—Chicago Journal.

The New York Tribune comes to us on a smaller sheet than usual, but it is still large enough; nay, too large at the price at which it is sold. The Tribune is the leading newspaper in this country, and we commend the prudence of its proprietors in cutting down in size rather than incurring a daily loss. Its collapse would be a great loss to the country. But we are glad the Tribune has failed in the experiment of printing and publishing an immense sheet at a less price than the cost of the white paper. Influential as that paper is for good, it is not the only newspaper the country needs; but its extraordinary cheapness seriously damaged and crippled the great mass of newspapers throughout the country, and especially those necessary and useful organs located in nearly every thriving village throughout the state. They cannot use a large sheet, purchase a twenty thousand dollar press, or employ a dozen editors and reporters, and of course do not expect more than a local circulation. But this is generally so small as to barely let the publisher live, because a larger and a better paper can be had for less than subscribers could buy the white sheets of the paper maker. Now we have always rejoiced at the success of the Tribune, and we believe that and other newspapers would do still better by quitting the present ruinous rivalry and allowing newspapers to exist throughout the country as well as in the city of New York.—Rock Dem.

LATER FROM EUROPE.—The Niagara, with Liverpool dates to September 2d, three days later, arrived at Halifax Tuesday night, and her news was received at the Sentinel office and issued in an extra yesterday morning. The abundant promise of the English harvests has caused a heavy decline in breadstuffs, which seriously affected the market here and in New York, yesterday. The chances are that prices will continue to fall, though the home market will ensure our Wisconsin farmers remunerating rates for all that they have to sell.

They only news of political interest are the destruction and abandonment of Bomersund, and the expulsion of Queen Christina from Spain. Commercially the news is highly favorable. Consols have advanced, money is easy and business active. This too had its effect on the New York money market yesterday; stocks having advanced largely.

We think the favorable accounts of the foreign money market of much greater consequence to the United States at the present time, than would be the news of a large advance, instead of a considerable decline in breadstuffs.—Sentinel, yesterday.

SALE OF PROPERTY IN FULTON.—The property known as the "Cawker Estate," situated in the village of Fulton, consisting of a flouring mill, a large quantity of village lots and about 350 acres of land adjoining said village. The above property was purchased by a Mr. Cunningham, of Lake Co., Ohio, for the sum of $12,600. The purchaser has returned to Ohio for his family, and is to have full possession on the 18th inst. It is the intention of the purchaser to immediately repair and improve said property, and put the mill in a condition to do an extensive flouring business.—Standard.

PRICE OF POTATOES.—This popular and almost indispensable article of food is destined to command unless all signs fail, an extraordinary price throughout the ensuing year. The crop is generally blighted, and in many sections an almost total failure. At this early day, and when there should be abundance, if ever, prices are relatively higher than they were ever known at this season of the year. In New York they sell at $1.76 to $2; Philadelphia, $1.50 to $1.75; Richmond, $1 to $1.50; Pittsburgh, $1.75 to $2; Cincinnati, $1.50 to $1.75; Springfield, Ohio, $1.40; Cleveland, $1.25; Columbus, Ohio, $1.20; Altoon, $1.25 to $1.50; Peoria, $1.40; St. Louis, $1 to $1.25 per bushel.—St. Louis Intelligencer 7th.

MUSICAL CONVENTION AND FESTIVAL.

Bradbury, of New York, the distinguished composer and teacher of music, to conduct a musical convention and festival to be held in this city, commencing on Monday, the 23d of October next, at 9 o'clock A. M., continuing three days and evenings, and concluding on Wednesday evening, October 25th, with a public concert.

Its design is the advancement of singers in musical knowledge, by the study and practice of church, concert, and secular music, combined with familiar lectures and criticisms.

The principal text-books used will be "The Shawm," and "The Metropolitan Glee Book."

Members of the convention from abroad will be entertained as guests of the "Janesville Musical Society," and upon their arrival will please present themselves to either of the reception committee, viz: John R. Beale, Sam'l A. Martin, John E. Babcock.

THE SECOND KANSAS PARTY.

The second party of emigrants for Kansas, sent out under the auspices of the emigrant aid society, passed through this city yesterday afternoon. They number about three hundred, including several females, wives of members of the party. They are a fine looking body, nearly all about in the prime of life, and possessed of courageous hearts and strong arms. They stopped only ten minutes at the depot, but that little time was not wasted. A large number of citizens crowded around the cars, when Hon. Wm. C. Bloss came forward and presented the party with a large quarto bible and a package of spelling books; books with which New England men are apt to be familiar and prize highly. This gift was not made because of the supposed necessities of the party, but as emblematic of the religious and civil institutions which have the bible and education for their base, and which these emigrants are expected to aid in planting in Kansas. As such it was highly appropriate, and was most cordially accepted by the party. After the short speeches, congratulations and farewells were interchanged, when the citizens gave three times three for this little army of freedom, and they in return gave three cheers for Rochester, and as they were singing the "Kansas emigrant's song" the cars moved off, and they were again on their way to their homes in the west. God bless them!—Rochester Democrat.

NOVEL SCENE.—The ex-postmaster of Boston is in Germany. He sends home an account of a dinner to a railway congress, at which a locomotive appeared upon the table, to which was attached a train loaded with dishes of the choicest and most solid food. The succulent train advanced slowly, in imitation of the passenger trains upon all German roads. After having made the tour of the table without stopping, in order to give a view of the good things with which it was freighted, the train again started, making a station in front of each guest, and permitting him to fill his plate according to appetite and fancy. The trains followed each other in constant succession two or three hours, departing each time well-loaded with comestibles, and always returning empty to the depot. This is just the thing for an American eating table, where the fashion is, according to English authority, to gulp every thing with railroad speed.

TO AVOID TROUBLE WITH NEIGHBORS.—Keep good fences and no breachy cattle. Few men can keep cool when their own corn fields and mowing lots are invaded by their own beasts; much less they exercise patience and forbearance when it is another's animals that are making such havoc. If you have any unruly animal, and have in vain tried to mend his manners, but have succeeded only in getting yourself into hot water with your neighbors, the best course is to get rid of him entirely—this serves as a peace offering, when nothing short of it can bring back their good will.

HYGEANA.

BROUGHT HOME TO THE DOOR OF THE MILLION.

A wonderful discovery has recently been made by Dr. Curtis, of this city, in the treatment of consumption, asthma and all diseases of the lung. We refer to "Dr. Curtis' Hygeana, or Inhaling Hygeana Vapor and Cherry Syrup." With this new method Dr. C. has restored many afflicted ones to perfect health, as an evidence of which he has innumerable certificates. Speaking of the treatment, a physician remarks: It is evident that inhaling—constantly breathing an agreeable, healing vapor, the medicinal properties must come in direct contact with the whole of the arial cavity of the lungs, and thus escape the many and varied changes produced upon them when introduced into the stomach, and subjected to the process of digestion. The Hygeana is for sale at all the druggists' throughout the country.—New York Dutchman of Jan. 14.

The Inhaler is worn on the breast under the linen without the least inconvenience—the heat of the body being sufficient to evaporate the fluid.

Hundreds of CASES OF CURES like the following might be named. One Package of Hygeana has cured me of the ASTHMA of six years standing.—Jas. F. Keenberry, P. M. of Duncannon, Pa.

I am cured of the ASTHMA of 10 years standing by Dr. Curtis' Hygeana.—Margaret Euston, Brooklyn, N. Y.

My sister has been cured of a DISTRESSING COUGH of several years standing, and decided to be incurable by her Physicians. She WAS CURED IN ONE MONTH by the Hygeana.—J. H. Gaudert, P. M., Richmond, Me.

Price three Dollars a Package.—Sold by CURTIS & PERKINS and BOYD & PAUL, No. 149 Chambers St., N. Y.—4 Packages sent free by express to any part of the United States for Ten Dollars.

N. B.—Dr. Curtis' Hygeana is the ORIGINAL and ONLY GENUINE ARTICLE, all others are base imitations or vile and INJURIOUS counterfeits. Shun them as you would POISON.

BOOTS AND SHOES
JUST RECEIVED AT THE Wisconsin Boot & Shoe Store.
I AM now receiving one of the largest and finest stocks of Boots and Shoes that I have ever before brought to Janesville, and what is finer than all the rest in the country, and at lower prices than I have ever sold before, notwithstanding the great advance in the Eastern Market. My assortment of Ladies Fine Shoes, in particular, I have no hesitation in saying "cannot be equalled in the State, both for style, and durability, being all made to order in such a manner that I can warrant every article sold, with the understanding that at all times, that if they do not come up to the warrant, they shall be mended free of charge.
GENTLEMEN'S WEAR.
In this line I know beyond a doubt that I can show you a finer assortment and at better prices by twenty-five per cent, than can be found at any of the side shops or Dry Goods stores in town. I want it distinctly understood that I make the BOOT and SHOETRADE MY WHOLE STUDY, and that I Buy More, Sell More and know more about the trade, than the whole of petty dealers put together. And I know also that I can make it an object for every Farmer, Merchant, and every one who trades in Janesville to buy their Boots and Shoes of me for the more I sell the smaller profits I can sell of.
Manufacturing.
I want to say a few words to you in regard to my Manufacturing Department, to wit: That I am now engaged more extensively in the manufacturing business, and probably am selling more custom work than all the shops about town put together, simply for these reasons—that I use better Stock, being entirely of Eastern manufacture, which every one knows is worth twenty-five per cent more than the common stock of the West; and what is a better reason and of greater importance, I can Sell my Custom Work at Much Lower Prices, and at the same time sell you a better article than you can get at the shops, for this reason, which you must all see is a very plain one, and that is in buying my stock, you get a full assortment of MOROCCOS of every kind, which I will sell at Precisely Milwaukee and Chicago Prices.
I have constantly on hand, also, a large assortment of all kinds of FINDINGS, LASTS, BOOT TRIMMINGS, etc., etc., all of which will be sold at the same rates.
I request the attention of manufacturers in town as well as in the country to my stock, as I think I can make it an object for you to buy of me. At least, I can sell you a much superior article to that which you get of the peddlers.
Yours respectfully,
J. B. DIMOCK, Proprietor,
T. H. BECKENBACH, Foreman.

ROCK COUNTY REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

The electors of Rock county who are determined to support no man for office who is not positively and fully committed to the support of the principles announced in the "Republican Platform" adopted at Madison on the 13th of July last, and whose personal character, political associations and private conduct, do not afford a guarantee that he is reliable, are invited to meet in their respective townships or wards at the place of holding the last township or ward election, on Tuesday, 16th day of October next, at 2 o'clock P. M. for the purpose of effecting a thorough organization of the Republican party in their towns or wards, and of appointing delegates to a county convention hereby called at the Court House in Janesville, on THURSDAY, the 12th day of October next, at 2 o'clock P. L. P. HARVEY, J. H. BIRD, J. H. COLLEY, J. H. COLLEY, G. H. WILLIAMS, A. HARRIS, J. DAWSON, PETER SCHULTZ, J. VINCEN, County Committee.

17th SENATORIAL DISTRICT CONVENTION.

At the same time and place above designated in the respective towns and wards for meetings, to choose delegates to the county convention, the Republican electors of the wards of the city of Janesville, and of the towns in this county comprised in the 17th senatorial district, are requested to select an equal number of delegates to which they are entitled under the above appointment in the county convention, to represent them in a senatorial convention hereby called at the Court House in Janesville, on THURSDAY the 12th day of October next at 11 o'clock, A. M., to nominate a candidate for senator.

By order of the County Committee.

COUNTY FAIR.—We were able yesterday to make a flying visit to the fair grounds, but unable to make an examination of anything, or even see a large part of the articles on exhibition. The attendance was very large, and the fair generally a decided advance on any former one. Persons who were at the state fair at Watertown last fall, report this as superior to it. We shall publish as soon as we receive them, the proceedings of the society on the grounds, the result of the plowing and spading matches, and the award of premiums to exhibitors.

We are glad to notice that the work upon the upper bridge has been resumed. How long it will take to accomplish it thus by piecemeal, it is hard to calculate. Its condition for a long time past has been far from creditable to the city, and it has been no small obstruction to business and travel. We hope to see the work prosecuted with energy, that it may be available for a portion of the business season.

The work of paving Main street is progressing finely, and we believe is of a substantial and durable character, reflecting credit upon the energetic contractor.

If the several factions of the "democracy" of this state have an occasional "bout" between discordant parts, there is a pleasant agreement among concuring sections. Here is an instance. The Waukesha Plaindealer, in the course of friendly notice of senator Isaac P. Walker, says:—

"His influence, aside from that given him by his vote, has amounted to nothing, and he has in the main, played only the part of a figure in a tailor's window—a lifeless representation of what he was not."

This sentiment the Racine County Democrat quotes, and thus endorses:

"Pity 'tis, his true." But yet, now that the man is dead, would it not be more christianlike to allow him to 'depart in peace.'"

That is harmony, sure, whether it is truth, or not.

One of Dr. Elder's sharp sayings is "that the democratic party holds the government from the proprietors in fee, and the whig party has a sort of tinkers' lien upon it for repairs."

Insignificant as our "democratic" brothers seem to consider the lien upon their estate, the property encumbered is unable to pay the demand against it and is about to pass into other hands to satisfy the claims created by their mismanagement and abuse of trust.

"WISCONSIN HOME."—The first number of this paper has been laid upon our table. It is well printed, conveniently "made up" for binding, and is certainly worth the money asked for it. Our readers are familiar with its character, its prospectus having been published for some weeks in our columns. We hope Mr. Doty will find his "Home" not only a pleasant, but a profitable enterprise.

STAGE OFFICE.—The stage office is now kept in the old post office, next door to the American hotel, where the railroad office is also kept. The room has been neatly refitted, and is very convenient for travelers, whose wants will be well attended to by Messrs. Keeler and Davis.

We have examined a superb set of coach harness, intended for exhibition at the fair, made at the shop of J. M. Riker, of this city. The work was mostly executed by Mr. W. S. Chase, and as a specimen of fine, costly workmanship, it is superior to any thing of the kind we have before seen.

MAINE ELECTION.—The telegraph continues to report an anti-Nebraska triumph. Morrill, elected governor by the people, and legislature "all right." Congressmen, ditto. Remembering that our best news comes first, we had rather wait and see the full returns, before rejoicing too hard.

NO SMOKING.—Two young gentlemen were walking up Tremont street, yesterday afternoon, each puffing furiously a cigar, they came in close neighborhood with two well dressed ladies, who quivered anything but pleasure at the fumigation. As the two parties came abreast of each other, in passing, one of the ladies very dexterously, with her parasol, knocked the cigar out of the mouth of one of the bloated, which striking the cheek of the other, caused quite a blister to manifest itself. The spectators laughed—the young ladies quietly smiled—the young claps looked various ways—but every one present saw that the lady had too strong a cause to back-er (cokacco) to prevent any hostile demonstrations on the part of the male sufferers.—Boston Times.

We can understand how an incident of this character could please a crowd in the street, and why "hostile demonstrations" should be foreborne on the part of the sufferers. One of the "rights" of women in this country is perfect impunity in the practice or in the attempt of any rudeness they may fancy to commit; and yet these Boston "ladies" were guilty of a real offence, and if they had been men, would have been called to account for their misconduct. To illustrate the principle involved, suppose a couple of men meet in the street a couple of women so strongly scented with musk or other perfume from the toilet, (as many of them are,) as to be offensive and pollute the air with a disagreeable odor, and these men should quietly eject from the sidewalk or sprinkle with a disinfectant the objects of their dislike, would such an action be looked upon as gentlemanly, the perpetrators treated with smiles, and the sufferers prevented from resenting the insult? For ourselves, we can't see the difference between the cigar and musk nuisance, and if one is to be tolerated as a "right," the other ought to have the same chance. If the women are to use their parasols, the men must resort to the sprinkler.

A CARD.—The undersigned, being satisfied of the fact, that the Protection Insurance Company, of Hartford, Conn., has made an assignment, deems it his duty to his patrons and friends, to announce the fact, unpleasant and unexpected, as the necessity is to him. If those holding policies in the Protection will call at my office, the best arrangement possible, for their transfer into other companies, shall at once be made. I should be unjust to myself, and ungrateful to my customers, did I not take this occasion to return my sincerest thanks for the handsome, courteous, and generous manner in which I have been treated, by those with whom I have conversed on the subject, since yesterday morning, when the fact first became known to me.

GEORGE S. DODGE.

Judge Spooner is a man of unimpeachable integrity, of excellent mind, of approved knowledge as a legislator, and has long since won the respect of political friends and enemies. His nomination, too, must have been a free-will offering of the delegates, for he would never stoop to beg an office, nor will he stoop to work for his election, in the usual manner of mere politicians. His opinions will be given without reserve, and he will leave the rest to others. If elected, he will be, we think, an industrious member of congress. We know he will be an honest one, but he will never be one of those who will make money out of the berth.—Standard.

The Standard does a manly and honorable act in thus frankly bearing testimony to the merits of Judge Spooner. We hope we shall not have equal reason to endorse the correctness of its opinion that a local feeling and vote in Milwaukee will defeat him, though we are aware that elections in former years seem to warrant it.

ACCIDENT.—The morning stage from this city to Afton Wednesday morning was overturned near the residence of Mr. J. P. Sears, on the river, and several of the passengers injured. Among the passengers were Judge Holmes, one of the earliest settlers of the town, his wife, and Mrs. Volney Atwood (a daughter of Judge H.) and child. The family had started on a visit to friends in Michigan, and left in the morning stage in order to reach their destination before night. The shoulder of Mrs. Holmes was dislocated, and other injuries inflicted, and Judge H. and Mrs. Atwood and child were slightly bruised. Mrs. H. was taken to the house of Mr. Sears, where she received proper treatment, and her husband and daughter remained to attend her.

FOND DU LAC UNION.—This paper gives outward signs of prosperity. The last number came to us in a new dress, and with a general look of satisfaction with itself and the world. Mr. Thomas, the founder of it, has associated Mr. A. J. Reed with him in its publication, and will aim to give it additional claims to a remunerating support. Its politics are not according to our way of thinking, but its political discussions are conducted with good temper and as near fairness as we expect generally to find in a paper which supports the Nebraska side of the question now before the people.

MERCHANTS FOR JANESVILLE.—For steamer Arctic, at Milwaukee, Easton & Bro. and O. B. Foote; per propeller Forest City, R. Hodge and J. A. Wood.

VERMONT.—This state has gone right without any doubt; the only question is by how great a majority, and this we leave to be told hereafter.

A FRIENDLY WORD TO LADIES.—We are no advocates of arts and attitudes practiced before the glass, but if ladies will raise their dresses in the streets—as it is evident they will—it is important that they should do it skillfully, daintily, and in such a manner as to display neither more or less than is intended. As a modest man, therefore, we would have them perfect themselves in the practice at home. A day or two since, we saw a divinity transformed into a dud for neglecting to do this. In walking from Rockwood's to State street with her dress raised to about the standard altitude, instead of displaying a pretty foot and ankle, immaculate hose and snowy daintiness, she evidently intended, she showed merely a hand-breadth of yellow flannel.—Springfield Republican.

WISCONSIN.—The whigs continue to show their dishonesty and insincerity in proclaiming the Nebraska question the principal issue in the election of members of congress. The entire Wisconsin delegation, it is well known, opposed and voted against the bill in all its stages. But notwithstanding this, the whigs have held what they call a republican convention in the first district, and nominated Wyman Spooner, Esq., of Walworth county, as their candidate for congress. The notorious S. M. Booth was his principal competitor. This action, in connection with others of the same sort, show the animus of the whig leaders. If they can make the anti-Nebraska excitement subservient to their own purposes, it is all well. But the democrats of Wisconsin have no occasion to vote for a whig. Their own men are "good and true" on this question, and it is their duty to sustain them.—Chicago Democrat.

This is all very well for Mr. Wentworth "to say to the marines," but no one knows better than he how the Wisconsin delegation halted, and how they would have voted, had they dared, upon the Nebraska bill.

Had Mr. Pierce been in need of their votes, he could have gotten them as certainly as he could that of Mr. Wentworth, himself. It is not such representatives, the people of Wisconsin want. The anti-Nebraska party must have candidates like Caesar's wife, "above suspicion," and they are not going to peril the cause of freedom by trusting any other.

Does our neighbor suppose that the people are ignorant of the hesitancy and non-committalism of Mr. Wells on this question, up to the last moment? or that they have such unbounded confidence in the purity, integrity and honesty of John B. Macy, that they will have no one else to represent his district but him?

Mr. W. is not going to pick his way back into congress with any such skeleton key as that, and he might as well make up his mind to it. Wisconsin will do the fair thing with her representatives. We have every confidence in that noble young state. Most of her politicians thus far, have been a disgrace to her.

Her people are right and will redeem themselves in the coming struggle. Wisconsin has the honor of being the first state to strike the first blow, at the loathsome fugitive slave bill. Her chief justice has done her exalted honor among the free states of the north, and she will do herself additional honor by sloughing off the dead skin politicians, which meanly and tamely represent her in congress, and whom Mr. Wentworth is seized with such a sudden admiration for.

How could the republicans of the first district nominate a man who was put up by the bunkers to defeat Charles Durkee, the best representative Wisconsin ever had? The only one of this "entire Wisconsin delegation" who seems to have acted with any manliness or honesty on the Nebraska question was Ben. C. Eastman, of the second district. If we remember right Mr. John B. Macy, came among the "absent or not voting," on this bill. Does Mr. Wentworth have any such recollection?

It will never do. These indifferent gentlemen are not wanted any longer at Washington. Much less are those wanted who go nosing around to see which way matters are likely to turn, and what kind of a vote will fill the largest pocket.—Chicago Journal.

The New York Tribune comes to us on a smaller sheet than usual, but it is still large enough; nay, too large at the price at which it is sold. The Tribune is the leading newspaper in this country, and we commend the prudence of its proprietors in cutting down in size rather than incurring a daily loss. Its collapse would be a great loss to the country. But we are glad the Tribune has failed in the experiment of printing and publishing an immense sheet at a less price than the cost of the white paper. Influential as that paper is for good, it is not the only newspaper the country needs; but its extraordinary cheapness seriously damaged and crippled the great mass of newspapers throughout the country, and especially those necessary and useful organs located in nearly every thriving village throughout the state. They cannot use a large sheet, purchase a twenty thousand dollar press, or employ a dozen editors and reporters, and of course do not expect more than a local circulation. But this is generally so small as to barely let the publisher live, because a larger and a better paper can be had for less than subscribers could buy the white sheets of the paper maker. Now we have always rejoiced at the success of the Tribune, and we believe that and other newspapers would do still better by quitting the present ruinous rivalry and allowing newspapers to exist throughout the country as well as in the city of New York.—Rock Dem.

LATER FROM EUROPE.—The Niagara, with Liverpool dates to September 2d, three days later, arrived at Halifax Tuesday night, and her news was received at the Sentinel office and issued in an extra yesterday morning. The abundant promise of the English harvests has caused a heavy decline in breadstuffs, and seriously affected the market here and in New York, yesterday. The chances are that prices will continue to fall, though the home market will ensure our Wisconsin farmers remunerating rates for all that they have to sell.

The only news of political interest are the destruction and abandonment of Bomersund, and the expulsion of Queen Christina from Spain. Commercially the news is highly favorable. Consols have advanced, money is easy and business active. This too had its effect on the New York money market yesterday; stocks having advanced largely.

We think the favorable accounts of the foreign money market of much greater consequence to the United States at the present time, than would be the news of a large advance, instead of a considerable decline in breadstuffs.—Sentinel, yesterday.

SALE OF PROPERTY IN FULTON.—The property known as the "Cawker Estate," situated in the village of Fulton, consisting of a flouring mill, a large quantity of village lots and about 350 acres of land adjoining said village. The above property was purchased by a Mr. Cunningham, of Lake Co., Ohio, for the sum of $12,600. The purchaser has returned to Ohio for his family, and is to have full possession on the 18th inst. It is the intention of the purchaser to immediately repair and improve said property, and put the mill in a condition to do an extensive flouring business.—Standard.

PRICE OF POTATOES.—This popular and almost indispensable article of food is destined to command unless all signs fail, an extraordinary price throughout the ensuing year. The crop is generally blighted, and in many sections an almost total failure. At this early day, and when there should be abundance, if ever, prices are relatively higher than they were ever known at this season of the year. In New York they sell at $1.75 to $2. Philadelphia, $1.50 to $1.75; Richmond, $1 to $1.50; Pittsburgh, $1.75 to $2; Cincinnati, $1.50 to $1.75; Springfield, Ohio, $1.40; Cleveland, $1.25; Columbus, Ohio, $1.40; Alton, $1.25; Springfield, $1; Peoria, $1.40; St. Louis, $1 to $1.25 per bushel.—St. Louis Intelligencer 7th.

MUSICAL CONVENTION AND FESTIVAL.

The "Janesville Musical Society" has engaged Prof. William B. Bradbury, of New York, the distinguished composer and teacher of music, to conduct a musical convention and festival to be held in this city, commencing on Monday, the 23d of October next, at 9 o'clock A. M., continuing three days and evenings, and concluding on Wednesday evening, October 26th, with a public concert.

Its design is the advancement of singers in musical knowledge, by the study and practice of church, concert, and secular music, combined with familiar lectures and criticisms.

The principal text-books used will be "The Shawm," and "The Metropolitan Gleeb Book."

Members of the convention from abroad will be entertained as guests of the "Janesville Musical Society," and upon their arrival will please present themselves to either of the reception committee, viz: John R. Beale, Sam'l A. Martin, John E. Babcock.

Terms of admission to the entire course for Gentlemen.....$2 00 Ladies.....1 00 Clergymen are cordially invited to attend free of charge. AMOS P. PRICHARD, Sec'y. Janesville, Sept. 8th, 1884. 2td

THE SECOND KANSAS PARTY.—The second party of emigrants for Kansas, sent out under the auspices of the emigrants aid society, passed through this city yesterday afternoon. They number about three hundred, including several females, wives of members of the party. They are a fine looking body, nearly all about in the prime of life, and possessed of courageous hearts and strong arms. They stopped only ten minutes at the depot, but that little time was not wasted. A large number of citizens crowded around the cars, when Hon. Wm. C. Briggs came forward and presented the party with a large quarto bible and a package of spelling books; books with which New England men are apt to be familiar and prize highly. This gift was not made because of the supposed necessities of the party, but as emblematic of the religious and civil institutions which have the bible and education for their base, and which these emigrants are expected to aid in planting in Kansas. As such it was highly appropriate, and was most cordially accepted by the party. After the short speeches, congratulations and farewells were interchanged, when the citizens gave three times three for this little army of freedom, and they in return gave three cheers for Rochester, and as they were singing off, "Kansas emigrant's song" the cars moved off, and they were again on their way to their homes in the west. God bless them!—Rochester Democrat.

NOVEL SCENE.—The ex-postmaster of Boston is in Germany. He sends home an account of a dinner to a railway congress, at which a locomotive appeared upon the table, to which was attached a train loaded with dishes of the choicest and most solid food. The succulent train advanced slowly, in imitation of the passenger trains upon all German roads. After having made the tour of the table without stopping in order to give a view of the good things with which it was freighted, the train again started, making a station in front of each guest, and permitting him to fill his plate according to appetite and fancy. The trains followed each other in constant succession for two or three hours, departing each time well-loaded with comestibles, and always returning empty to the depot. This is just the thing for an American eating table, where the fashion is, according to English authority, to gulp every thing with railroad speed.

TO AVOID TROUBLE WITH NEIGHBORS.—Keep good fences and no breachy cattle. Few men can keep cool when their own corn fields and mowing lots are invaded by their own beasts; much less they exercise patience and forbearance when it is another's animals that are making such havoc. If you have any unruly animal, and have in vain tried to mend his manners, and have succeeded only in getting yourself into hot water with your neighbors, the best course is to get rid of him entirely—this serves as a peace offering, when nothing short of it can bring back their good will.

HYGEANA.

BROUGHT HOME TO THE DOOR OF THE MILLION. A wonderful discovery has recently been made by Dr. Curtis, of this city, in the treatment of consumption, asthma and all diseases of the lung. We refer to "Dr. Curtis' Hygeana, or Inhaling Hygean Vapor and Obery Syrup." With this new method Dr. C. has restored many afflicted ones to perfect health; as an evidence of which he has innumerable certificates. Speaking of the treatment, a physician remarks: "It is evident that inhaling—constantly breathing an agreeable, healing vapor, the medicinal properties must come in direct contact with the whole of the arisal cavity of the lungs, and thus escape the many and varied changes produced upon them when introduced into the stomach, and subjected to the process of digestion. The Hygeana is for sale at all the druggists' throughout the country.—New York Dutchman of Jan. 14.

The Inhaler is worn on the breast under the linen without the least inconvenience—the heat of the body being sufficient to evaporate the fluid.

Hundreds of CASES OF CURES like the following might be named. One Package of Hygeana has cured me of the ASTHMA of six years standing.—Jas. F. Keelberry, P. M. of Dunbar, Pa.

I am cured of the ASTHMA of 10 years standing by Dr. Curtis' Hygeana.—Margaret Easton, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Mrs. Paul of No. 5 Mammoth St., N. Y., was cured of a severe case of Bronchitis by the Hygeana.

My sister has been cured of a DISTRESSING COUGH of several years standing, and decided to be incurable by her Physicians. She was CURED IN ONE MONTH by the Hygeana.—J. H. Gaudert, P. M., Richmond, Va.

AGAIN & AGAIN THE BOSTON STORE.

Let the Horn be Blown!!

"Sound the loud Hymn of our land and our sea,"
WHEELLOCK'S triumphant, and ever shall be.

THIS is the middle of the nineteenth century, the first half of which has produced more change and onward movement than any fifty years of our Christian Era.

The great controlling power of this age is its commerce—indeed, this may be truly called the commercial age.

It has been well said by an ancient writer that "Man wants but little here below," and to supply those wants

WHEELLOCK

Announces to every people and every tongue, to both sexes and all parties, to all factions of all gauges, that finding his old store entirely

TOO SMALL!

He has been compelled, in order to be able to supply the immense call for goods at this establishment, to Double the capacity of his Store Rooms!

Having purchased this spring, for this market, to be sold this season,

$39,007 00 Worth of Goods

But who can expect to read in the brief space of one life all the articles that the

BOSTON STORE CONTAINS.

Indeed, history must fall to give the searcher of knowledge any accurate idea of its immense

STOCK OF SUMMER GOODS,

His inimitable selection of Fancy Dress Goods!

He has over

10,000 Yards of Silk Barges, of every style and price, and it is with no great difficulty that the fair damsel of this fair valley can select,

FROM ONE THOUSAND PIECES

Of all patterns and ranging in price from SIX CENTS

Per Yard to Twenty-Eight Cents, such dresses as will add to their exquisite beauty, though it may be a general thing, be as difficult to add to that beauty as it is

"to add refined gold, paint the lily, or add perfume to the violet."

It must not be inferred that we offer only these and the many other articles for outer apparel, such as Chamois and Foulard Silks, but all manner of

are on change, so that every one may be entirely accommodated with every article of female apparel—

Even French red frock Gaiters, of the finest quality, do not

Ladies' Embroidered Bonnets, sewed Congress Boots,

LADIES' MOROCCO POLKAS,

And all the articles manufactured of the best styles—

So that of this store, so far as articles which adorn La Belle see are concerned, it may be truly said

"CUSTOM cannot state the infinite variety."

While the Boston Store has made provision to protect the feet, it can also boast that it has all sorts of

by which hands can be protected and retain

"The white complexion of fair Juliet's hand."

And in taking leave of those of whom it is no exaggeration to say they are

"Heaven's last, best gift to man," the Nonpareils of beauty, the Paragons of perfection, Mr. Wheellock assures his fair customers that his assistants, and assistants, who unite great knowledge of the business, fine personal presence and affability of manner to a determination to discharge conscientiously their several and respective duties—that while they may have the proper desire to effect sales, they will never in imitation of many of our contemporaries attempt to accomplish that object by equivocation, misrepresentation, exaggeration, tergiversation, fabrication, or by dirty lying.

And now to the wares of the

COARSE HAND SEX.

Mr. Wheellock has every kind of material to make those articles of dress that give to man his individuality—

PANTALOONS,

CALE "BEAVIS," COW HIDE DO, GAZELLE, do.,

PATENT LEATHER do., GIRAFFE do.,

HATS

That fly every head from the Websterian brow to the country politician's scoundrel, from the size of caput of him who is closely shorn after the Hibernian fashion to that of him who wears the well-pomaded, ambrosial, elongated Hyperion curls.

And to the spectator who buys to sell again,

The Boston Store

Can, at lower rates of usance than any other establishment west of the Alleghany mountains, furnish that class of exchanges to that tribes will fill their pockets as water fills the sea. And to them we offer

DOMESTIC GLASSWARE, WORSTED,

Pocket Handkerchiefs, Inkstands, Cotton Yarn, Ready-made Vests, Grouse and Turkey, Flannels, Looking Glasses, Cotton and Flower Coats, Pants, Rainsuits, Flat Irons and Cotton Batting, Lanterns, Satchels, which the whining school-boy with shining morning face bears on his arm, Chests, Norwegian Ranges and Hair Trunks, Tea, Tobacco and Wicking.

CROCKERY

Line may be found the

REXINGTON, the PARIAN and the LAVA

Manufacture, Pitchers for milk or water, Tea Pots, Spoons, Bowls for washing, for bread and milk, or sugar, Castles, children's Toys and Flower Pots, MAINE LIQUOR LUG VOLUMES and Lager Beer Mugs.

In the line, the proprietor of this establishment can with all confidence assure those who have been in the habit of trading at Janesville that, although they have

"Often seen corruption bolt and bubble till it o'erruns the sieve," they will find that the representations which shall be made to them by that proprietor or his clerks will not

"Stand like forlorn in a Barber shop,"

"More in mock than mark."

NEW ENGLAND MUTUAL LIFE INS.

Of Boston, Mass., Chartered in 1843, Capital and accumulation, $650,000.

THIS Company is one of the oldest, and among the most prudently and successfully conducted in the country. The primary object in conducting its business has been to provide permanent security for the policyholders, and to secure the payment of its losses under its policies, and to return to the insured the surplus at stated periods, and strict economy is observed.

Every insured person is a member of the company and shares in the profits of the business, and is subject to no liability or assessments beyond his premium. The directors are required to be peculiarly interested in the company, and they give their personal attention to the faithful performance of their duties. Insurance may be effected for the benefit of the wife, which is secured to her by law beyond the reach of a husband's creditors; and creditors may insure the lives of debtors.

Highly Important to Farmers.

THE ONLY EXCLUSIVE FARMERS' INSURANCE COMPANY IN THE WEST.

THE MADISON MUTUAL.

LOCATED AT MADISON, WISCONSIN.

THIS Company continues to take risks upon Farm Property only, consisting of buildings of all kinds (including barns), household goods, crops in barns, live stock, &c., from one to five years, at lower rates than most other responsible companies.

All losses promptly paid at the office as soon as proof is made thereon.

We believe it to be for the interest of the farmers to insure by themselves, their property being less hazardous than any other, consequently you will have no losses, only your own of the same class, and all will be on an equal footing.

Experience has shown that two-thirds of the losses of all the firsts that occur are upon stores, taverns, mills, shops and such like property. In this company all such property is insured positively, by LETTING THE LOSS.

Farmers look to your own interest, and insure in a Farmers' Company.

We have been doing business a little over three years, and we have not been obliged to assess our premium notes, and for the last fourteen months we have not had a single dollar loss, though doing a large and prosperous business, which we believe to be without a parallel in the history of insurance.

JANESVILLE : : : WISCONSIN.
FRIDAY MORNING, SEPT. 15, 1884.

ROCK COUNTY REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

The electors of Rock County who are determined to support no man for office who is not positively and fully committed to the support of the principles announced in the "Republican Platform" adopted at Madison on the 13th of July last, and whose personal character, political associations and private conduct do not afford a guarantee that he is reliable, are invited to meet in their respective townships or wards at the place of holding the last township or ward election, on Tuesday, 10th day of October next, at 2 o'clock P. M. for the purpose of effecting a thorough organization of the Republican party in their towns or wards, and of appointing delegates to a county convention hereby called at the Court House in Janesville, on THURSDAY, the 12th day of October next, at 2 o'clock P. M., to nominate a county ticket.

The towns and wards will be entitled to representation in the county convention as follows:—to wit:

Janesville, town, 4	" 9th ward 4

17th SENATORIAL DISTRICT CONVENTION.

At the same time and place above designated in the respective towns and wards for meetings, to choose delegates to the county convention, the Republican electors of the wards of the city of Janesville, and of the towns in this county comprised in the 17th senatorial district, are requested to select an equal number of delegates to which they are entitled under the above appointment in the county convention, to represent them in a senatorial convention hereby called at the Court House in Janesville, on THURSDAY the 12th day of October next at 11 o'clock, A. M., to nominate a candidate for senator.

By order of the County Committee.

COUNTY FAIR.—We were able yesterday to make a flying visit to the fair grounds, but unable to make an examination of anything, or even see a large part of the articles on exhibition. The attendance was very large, and the fair generally a decided advance on any former one. Persons who were at the state fair at Watertown last fall, report this as superior to it. We shall publish as soon as we receive them, the proceedings of the society on the grounds, the result of the plowing and sowing matches, and the award of premiums to exhibitors.

We are glad to notice that the work upon the upper bridge has been resumed. How long it will take to accomplish it thus by piecemeal, it is hard to calculate. Its condition for a long time past has been far from creditable to the city, and it has been no small obstruction to business and travel. We hope to see the work prosecuted with energy, that it may be available for a portion of the business season.

The work of paving Main street is progressing finely, and we believe is of a substantial and durable character, reflecting credit upon the energetic contractor.

If the several factions of the "democracy" of this state have an occasional "bout" between discordant parts, there is a pleasant agreement among contending sections. Here is an instance. The Waukesha Plaindealer, in the course of friendly notice of senator Isaac P. Walker, says—

"His influence, aside from that given him by his vote, has amounted to nothing, and he has in the main, played only the part of a figure in a tailor's window—a lifeless representation of what he was not."

This sentiment the Racine County Democrat quotes, and thus endorses:

"Pity 'tis, 'tis true." But yet, now that the man is dead, would it not be more Christlike to allow him to "depart in peace?"

That is harmony, sure, whether it is truth, or not.

One of Dr. Elder's sharp sayings is "that the democratic party holds the government from the proprietors in fee, and the whig party has a sort of tinker's lien upon it for repairs."

Insignificant as our "democratic" brothers seem to consider the lien upon their estate, the property encumbered is unable to pay the demand against it and is about to pass into other hands to satisfy the claims created by their mismanagement and abuse of trust.

"WISCONSIN HOME."—The first number of this paper has been laid upon our table. It is well printed, conveniently "made up" for binding, and is certainly worth the money asked for it. Our readers are familiar with its character, its prospectus having been published for some weeks in our columns. We hope Mr. Doty will find his "Home" not only a pleasant, but a profitable enterprise.

STAGE OFFICE.—The stage office is now kept in the old post office, next door to the American hotel, where the railroad office is also kept. The room has been neatly refitted, and is very convenient for travelers, whose wants will be well attended to by Messrs. Keeler and Davis.

We have examined a superb set of coach harness, intended for exhibition at the fair, made at the shop of J. M. Riker, of this city. The work was mostly executed by Mr. W. S. Chase, and as a specimen of fine, costly workmanship, it is superior to any thing of the kind we have before seen.

MAINE ELECTION.—The telegraph continues to report an anti-Nebraska triumph. Morrill elected governor by the people, and legislature "all right." Congressmen, ditto. Remembering that our best news comes first, we had rather wait and see the full returns, before rejoicing too hard.

NE SMOKE.—As two young gentlemen were walking up Tenth street, yesterday afternoon, each puffing furiously a cigar, they came in close neighborhood with two well-dressed ladies, who evinced anything but pleasure at the fumigation. As the two parties came abreast of each other, in passing, one of the ladies very dexterously, with her parasol, knocked the cigar out of the mouth of one of the bloated, thick-skinned cheeks of the other, caused quite a blister to manifest itself. The spectators laughed—the young ladies quietly smiled—the young chap looked various ways—but every one present saw that the lady had too strong a cause to back her (tobacco) to prevent any hostile demonstrations on the part of the male sufferers.—Boston Times.

We can understand how an incident of this character could please a crowd in the street, and why "hostile demonstrations" should be foreborne on the part of the sufferers. One of the "rights" of women in this country is perfect impunity in the practice or in the attempt of any rudeness they may fancy to commit; and yet these Boston "ladies" were guilty of a real offence, and if they had been men, would have been called to account for their misconduct. To illustrate the principle involved, suppose a couple of men meet in the street a couple of women so strongly scented with musk or other perfume from the toilet, (as many of them are,) as to be offensive and pollute the air with a disagreeable odor, and these men should quickly eject from the sidewalk or spittoon a disinfectant the objects of their dislike, would such an action be looked upon as gentlemanly, the perpetrators treated with smiles, and the sufferers prevented from resenting the insult? For ourselves, we can't see the difference between the cigar and musk nuisance, and if one is to be tolerated as a "right," the other ought to have the same chance. If the women are to use their parasols, the men must resort to the sprinkler.

A CARD.—The undersigned, being satisfied of the fact, that the Protection Insurance Company, of Hartford, Conn., has made an assignment, deems it his duty to his patrons and friends, to announce the fact, unpleasant and unexpected, as the necessity is to him. If those holding policies in the Protection will call at my office, the best arrangement possible, for their transfer into other companies, shall at once be made. I should be unjust to myself, and ungrateful to my customers, did I not take this occasion to return my sincerest thanks for the handsome, courteous, and generous manner in which I have been treated, by those with whom I have conversed on the subject, since yesterday morning, when the fact first became known to me.

GEORGE S. DODGE.

Judge Spooner is a man of unimpeachable integrity, of excellent mind, of approved knowledge as a legislator, and has long since won the respect of political friends and enemies. His nomination, too, must have been a free-will offering of the delegates, for he would never stoop to beg an office, nor will he stoop to work for his election, in the usual manner of mere politicians. His opinions will be given without reserve, and he will leave the rest to others. If elected, he will be, we think, an industrious member of congress. We know he will be an honest one, but he will never be one of those who will make money out of the berth.—Standard.

The Standard does a manly and honorable act in thus frankly bearing testimony to the merits of Judge Spooner. We hope we shall not have equal reason to endorse the correctness of its opinion that a local feeling and vote in Milwaukee will defeat him, though we are aware that elections in former years seem to warrant it.

ACCIDENT.—The morning stage from this city to Afon Wednesday morning was overturned near the residence of Mr. J. P. Sears, on the river, and several of the passengers injured. Among the passengers were Judge Holmes, one of the earliest settlers of the town, his wife, and Mrs. Volney Atwood (a daughter of Judge II.) and child. The family had started on a visit to friends in Michigan, and left in the morning stage in order to reach their destination before night. The shoulder of Mrs. Holmes was dislocated, and other injuries inflicted, and Judge H. and Mrs. Atwood and child were slightly bruised. Mrs. H. was taken to the house of Mr. Sears, where she received proper treatment, and her husband and daughter remained to attend her.

FOND DE LAC UNION.—This paper gives outward signs of prosperity. The last number came to us in a new dress, and with a general look of satisfaction with itself and the world. Mr. Thomas, the founder of it, has associated Mr. A. J. Reed with him in its publication, and will aim to give it additional claims to a remunerating support. Its politics are not according to our way of thinking, but its political discussions are conducted with good temper and as near fairness as we expect generally to find in a paper which supports the Nebraska side of the question now before the people.

MERCHANTS FOR JANESVILLE.—Per steamer Arctic, at Milwaukee, Eastmont & Bro. and O. B. Foote; per propeller Forest City, R. Hodge and J. A. Wood.

VERMONT.—This state has gone right without any doubt; the only question is by how great a majority, and this we leave to be told hereafter.

A FRIENDLY WORD TO LADIES.—We are no advocates of arts and attitudes practiced before the glass, but if ladies will raise their dresses in the streets—as it is evident they will—it is important that they should do it skillfully, daintily, and in such a manner as to display neither more or less than is intended. As a modest man, therefore, we would have them perfect themselves in the practice at home. A day or two since, we saw a divinity transformed into a dowdy for neglecting to do this. In walking from Rockwood's to State street with her dress raised to about the standard altitude, instead of displaying a pretty foot and ankle, immaculate hose and snowy finery, as she evidently intended, she showed merely a hand-breadth of yellow flannel.—Springfield Republican.

WISCONSIN.—The whigs continue to show their dishonesty and insincerity in proclaiming the Nebraska question the principal issue in the election of members of congress. The entire Wisconsin delegation, it is well known, opposed and voted against the bill in all its stages. But notwithstanding this, the whigs have held what they call a republican convention in the first district, and nominated Wyman Spooner, Esq., of Walworth county, as their candidate for congress. The notorious S. M. Booth was his principal competitor. This action, in connection with others of the same sort, show the animus of the whig leaders. If they can make the anti-Nebraska excitement subservient to their own purposes, it is all well. But the democrats of Wisconsin have no occasion to vote for a whig. Their own men are "good and true" on this question, and it is their duty to sustain them.—Chicago Democrat.

This is all very well for Mr. Wentworth "to say to the masses," but no one knows better than he how the Wisconsin delegation halted, and how they would have voted, had they dared, upon the Nebraska bill.

Had Mr. Pierce been in need of their votes, he could have gotten them as certainly as he could that of Mr. Wentworth, himself. It is not such representatives, the people of Wisconsin want. The anti-Nebraska party must have candidates like Caesar's wife, "above suspicion," and they are not going to peril the cause of freedom by trusting any other.

Does our neighbor suppose that the people are ignorant of the hesitancy and non-commitment of Mr. Wells on this question, up to the last moment, or that they have such unbounded confidence in the purity, integrity and honesty of John B. Macy, that they will have no one else to represent his district but him?

Mr. W. is not going to pick his way back into congress with any such skeleton key as that, and he might as well make up his mind to it. Wisconsin will do the fair thing with her representatives. We have every confidence in that noble young state. Most of her politicians thus far, have been a disgrace to her.

Her people are right and will redeem themselves in the coming struggle. Wisconsin has the honor of being the first state to strike the first blow, at the loathsome fugitive slave bill. Her chief justice has done her exalted honor among the free states of the north, and she will do herself additional honor by sloughing off the dead skin politicians, which meanly and tawdryly represent her in congress, and whom Mr. Wentworth is seized with such a sudden admiration for.

How could the republicans of the first district nominate a man who was put up by the bankers to defeat Charles Durkee, the best representative Wisconsin ever had? The only one of this "entire Wisconsin delegation" who seems to have acted with any manliness or honesty on the Nebraska question was Ben. C. Eastman, of the second district. If we remember right Mr. John B. Macy, came among the "absent or not voting" on this bill. Does Mr. Wentworth have any such recollection?

It will never do. These indifferent gentlemen are not wanted any longer at Washington. Much less are those wanted who go nosing around to see which way matters are likely to turn, and what kind of a vote will all the largest pocket.—Chicago Journal.

The New York Tribune comes to us on a smaller sheet than usual, but it is still large enough; nay, too large at the price at which it is sold. The Tribune is the leading newspaper in this country, and we commend the prudence of its proprietors in cutting down in size rather than incurring a daily loss. Its collapse would be a great loss to the country. But we are glad the Tribune has failed in the experiment of printing and publishing an immense sheet at a less price than the cost of the white paper. Influential as that paper is for good, it is not the only newspaper the country needs; but its extraordinary cheapness seriously damaged and crippled the great mass of newspapers throughout the country, and especially those necessary and useful organs located in nearly every thriving village throughout the state. They cannot use a large sheet, purchase a twenty thousand dollar press, or employ a dozen editors and reporters, and of course do not expect more than a local circulation. But this is generally so small as to barely let the publisher live, because a larger and a better paper can be had for less than subscribers could buy the white sheets of the paper maker. Now we have always rejoiced at the success of the Tribune, and we believe that and other newspapers would do still better by quitting the present ruinous rivalry and allowing newspapers to exist throughout the country as well as in the city of New York.—Rock Dem.

LATER FROM EUROPE.—The Niagara, with Liverpool dates to September 2d, three days later, arrived at Halifax Tuesday night, and her news was received at the Sentinel office and issued in an extra yesterday morning. The abundant promise of the English harvests has caused a heavy decline in breadstuffs, which seriously affected the market here and in New York, yesterday. The chances are that prices will continue to fall, though the home market will ensure Wisconsin farmers remunerating rates for all that they have to sell.

They are only news of political interest are the destruction and abandonment of Bomersund, and the expulsion of Queen Christina from Spain. Commercially the news is highly favorable. Consols have advanced, money is easy and business active. This too had its effect on the New York money market yesterday; stocks having advanced largely.

We think the favorable accounts for the foreign money market of much greater consequence to the United States at the present time, than would be the news of a large advance, instead of a considerable decline in breadstuffs.—Sentinel, yesterday.

SALE OF PROPERTY IN FULTON.—The property known as the "Cawker Estate," situated in the village of Fulton, consisting of a flouring mill, a large quantity of village lots and about 350 acres of land adjoining said village. The above property was purchased by a Mr. Cunningham, of Lake Co., Ohio, for the sum of $12,500. The purchaser has returned to Ohio for his family, and is to have full possession on the 18th inst. It is the intention of the purchaser to immediately repair and improve said property, and put the mill in a condition to do an extensive flouring business.—Standard.

PRICE OF POTATOES.—This popular and almost indispensable article of food is destined to command unless all signs fail, an extraordinary price throughout the ensuing year. The crop is generally blighted, and in many sections an almost total failure. At this early day, and when there should be abundance, if ever, prices are relatively higher than they were ever known at this season of the year. In New York they sell at $1.75 to $2; Philadelphia, $1.50 to $1.75; Richmond, $1 to $1.50; Springfield, $1.75 to $2; Cincinnati, $1.50 to $1.75; Springfield, Ohio, $1.40; Cleveland, $1.25; Columbus, Ohio, $2; Alto, $1.81, 25; Springfield, $1; Peoria, $1.40; St. Louis, $1 to $1.25 per bushel.—St. Louis Intelligencer 7th.

Bradbury, of New York, the distinguished composer and teacher of music, to conduct a musical convention and festival to be held in this city, commencing on Monday, the 23d of October next, at 9 o'clock A. M., continuing three days and evenings, and concluding on Wednesday evening, October 25th, with a public concert.

The principal text-books used will be "The Shawm," and "The Metropolitan Glee Book."

THE SECOND KANSAS PARTY.

The second party of emigrants for Kansas, sent out under the auspices of the emigrant aid society, passed through this city yesterday afternoon. They number about three hundred, including several families, wives of members of the party. They are a fine looking body, nearly all about in the prime of life, and possessed of courageous hearts and strong arms. They stopped only ten minutes at the depot, but that little time was not wasted. A large number of citizens crowded around the cars, when Hon. Wm. C. Bloss came forward and presented the party with a large quarto bible and a package of spelling books; books with which New England men are apt to be familiar and prize highly. This gift was not made because of the supposed necessities of the party, but as emblematic of the religious and civil institutions which have been emigrants are expected to aid in planting in Kansas. As such it is highly appropriate, and was most cordially accepted by the party. After the short speeches, congratulations and farewells were interchanged, when the citizens gave three times three for this little army of freedom, and they in return gave three cheers for Rochester, and as they were singing the "Kansas emigrant's song" the cars moved off, and they were again on their way to their homes in the west. God bless them!—Rochester Democrat.

NOVEL SCENE.—The ex-postmaster of Boston is in Germany. He sends home an account of a dinner to a railway congress, at which a locomotive appeared upon the table, to which was attached a train loaded with dishes of the choicest and most solid food. The succulent train advanced slowly, in imitation of the passenger trains upon all German roads. After having made the tour of the table without stopping, in order to give a view of the good things with which it was freighted, the train again started, making a station in front of each guest, and permitting him to fill his plate according to appetite and fancy. The trains followed each other in constant succession for two or three hours, departing each time well-loaded with bours, departing each time returning empty to the comestibles, and always returning empty to the depot. This is just the thing for an American eating table, where the fashion is, according to English authority, to gulp every thing with railroad speed.

TO AVOID TROUBLE WITH NEIGHBORS.—Keep good fences and no breachy cattle. Few men can keep cool when their own corn fields and moving lots are invaded by their own beasts; much less they exercise patience and forbearance when it is another's animals that are making such havoc. If you have any unruly animal, and have in vain tried to mend his manners, but have succeeded only in getting yourself into hot water with your neighbors, the best course is to get rid of him entirely—this serves as a peace offering, when nothing short of it can bring back their good will.

HYGEANA.

BROUGHT HOME TO THE DOOR OF THE MILLION.
A wonderful discovery has recently been made by Dr. Curtis, of this city, in the treatment of consumption, asthma and all diseases of the lung. We refer to "Dr. Curtis' Hygeana, or Inhaling Hygeana Vapor and Cherry Syrup." With this new method Dr. C. has restored many afflicted ones to perfect health; as an evidence of which he has innumerable certificates. Speaking of the treatment, a physician remarks: "It is evident that inhaling—constantly breathing an agreeable, healing vapor, the medicinal properties must come in direct contact with the whole of the arial cavity of the lungs, and thus escape the many and varied changes produced upon them when introduced into the stomach, and subjected to the process of digestion." The Hygeana is for sale at all the druggists' throughout the country.—New York Dutchman of Jan. 14.

The Inhaler is worn on the breast under the linen without the least inconvenience—the heat of the body being sufficient to evaporate the fluid. Hundreds of CASES OF CURES like the following might be named. One Package of Hygeana has cured me of the ASTHMA of six years standing.—Jas. E. Kesberry, P. M. of Danvers, Pa. I am cured of the ASTHMA of 10 years standing by Dr. Curtis' Hygeana.—Margaret Ezzelen, Brooklyn, N. Y. Mrs. Paul of No. 3 Mammoth St., N. Y., was cured of a severe case of Bronchitis by the Hygeana. My sister has been cured of a DISTRESSING COUGH of several years standing, and decided to be incurable by her Physicians. She was CURED IN ONE MONTH by the Hygeana.—J. H. Gaudert, P. M., Richmond, Me.

Price three Dollars a Package.—Sold by CURTIS & PERKINS and BOYD & PAUL No. 149 Chambers St., N. Y.—A Package sent free by express to any part of the United States for Ten Dollars.

N. B.—Dr. Curtis' Hygeana is the ORIGINAL and ONLY GENUINE ARTICLE, all others are base imitations or vile and INJURIOUS counterfeits. Shun them as you would POISON.

Highly Important to Farmers.

THE ONLY EXCLUSIVE FARMERS' INSURANCE COMPANY IN THE WEST.

THE MADISON MUTUAL,

LOCATED AT MADISON, WISCONSIN.

THIS Company continues to take risks upon Farm Property only, consisting of buildings of all kinds (including barns), household goods, crops in barns, live stock, &c., from one to five years, at lower rates than most other responsible companies.

All losses promptly paid at the office as soon as proof is made thereon.

We believe it to be for the interest of the farmers to insure by themselves, their property being less hazardous than any other, consequently you will have no losses, only your own of the same class, and all will be on an equal footing.

Experience has shown that two-thirds of the losses of all the fires that occur are upon stores, taverns, mills, shops and such like property. In this company all such property is insured positively, by LETTING THE RISK ALONE.

Farmers look to your own interest, and insure in a Farmers' Company.

We have been doing business a little over three years, and we have not been obliged to assess our premium notes, and for the last fourteen months we have not had a single dollar loss, though doing a large and prosperous business, which we believe to be without a parallel in the history of insurance.

ROCK COUNTY REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

The electors of Rock county who are determined to support no man for office who is not positively and fully committed to the support of the principles announced in the "Republican Platform" adopted at Madison on the 18th of July last, and whose personal character, political associations and private conduct, do not afford a guarantee that he is reliable, are invited to meet in their respective townships or wards at the place of holding the last township or ward election, on Tuesday, 10th day of October next, at 2 o'clock P. 17th SENATORIAL DISTRICT CONVENTION.

At the same time and place above designated in the respective towns and wards for meetings, to choose delegates to the county convention, the Republican electors of the wards of the city of Janesville, and of the towns in this county comprised in the 17th senatorial district, are requested to select an equal number of delegates to which they are entitled under the above appointment in the county convention, to represent them in a senatorial convention hereby called at the Court House in Janesville, on THURSDAY the 12th day of October next at 11 o'clock, A. M., to nominate a candidate for senator.

By order of the County Committee.

COUNTY FAIR.—We were able yesterday to make a flying visit to the fair grounds, but unable to make an examination of anything, or even see a large part of the articles on exhibition. The attendance was very large, and the fair generally a decided advance on any former one. Persons who were at the state fair at Watertown last fall, report this as superior to it. We shall publish as soon as we receive them, the proceedings of the society on the grounds, the result of the plowing and spading matches, and the award of premiums to exhibitors.

We are glad to notice that the work upon the upper bridge has been resumed. How long it will take to accomplish it thus by piecemeal, it is hard to calculate. Its condition for a long time past has been far creditable to the city, and it has been no small obstruction to business and travel. We hope to see the work prosecuted with energy, that it may be available for a portion of the business season.

The work of paving Main street is progressing finely, and we believe is of a substantial and durable character, reflecting credit upon the energetic contractor.

If the several factions of the "democracy" of this state have an occasional "bout" between discordant parts, there is a pleasant agreement among contending sections. Here is an instance. The Waukesha Plaindealer, in the course of friendly notice of senator Isaac P. Walker, says:—

"His influence, aside from that given him by his vote, has amounted to nothing, and he has in the main, played only the part of a figure in a tailor's window—a lifeless representation of what he was not."

This sentiment the Racine County Democrat quotes, and thus endorses:

"Pity 'tis, 'tis true." But yet, now that the man is dead, would it not be more christianlike to allow him to 'depart in peace'?"

That is harmony, sure, whether it is truth, or not.

One of Dr. Elder's sharp sayings is "that the democratic party holds the government from the proprietors in fee, and the whig party has a sort of tinker's lien upon it for repairs."

Insignificant as our "democratic" brothers seem to consider the lien upon their estate, the property encumbered is unable to pay the demand against it and is about to pass into other hands to satisfy the claims created by their mismanagement and abuse of trust.

"WISCONSIN HOME."—The first number of this paper has been laid upon our table. It is well printed, conveniently "made up" for binding, and is certainly worth the money asked for it. Our readers are familiar with its character, its prospectus having been published for some weeks in our columns. We hope Mr. Doty will find his "Home" not only a pleasant, but a profitable enterprise.

STAGE OFFICE.—The stage office is now kept in the old post office, next door to the American hotel, where the railroad office is also kept. The room has been neatly refitted, and is very convenient for travelers, whose wants will be well attended to by Messrs. Kreler and Davis.

We have examined a superb set of coach harness, intended for exhibition at the fair, made at the shop of J. M. Rikor, of this city. The work was mostly executed by Mr. W. S. Chase, and as a specimen of fine, costly workmanship, it is superior to any thing of the kind we have before seen.

MAINE ELECTION.—The telegraph continues to report an anti-Nebraska triumph. Morrill elected governor by the people, and legislature "all right." Congressmen, ditto. Remembering that our best news comes first, we had rather wait and see the full returns, before rejoicing too hard.

No SMOG.—As two young gentlemen were walking up Tremont street, yesterday afternoon, each puffing furiously a cigar, they came in close neighborhood with two well dressed ladies, who evinced anything but pleasure at the fumigation. As the two parties came abreast of each other, in passing, one of the ladies very dexterously, with her parasol, knocked the cigar out of the mouth of one of the bloated, white-skinned, cheek of the other, caused quite a blister to manifest itself. The spectators laughed—the young ladies quietly smiled—the young chaps looked various ways—but every one present saw that the lady had too strong a cause to back-her (tolacco) to prevent any hostile demonstrations on the part of the male sufferers.—Boston Times.

We can understand how an incident of this character could please a crowd in the street, and why "hostile demonstrations" should be foreborne on the part of the sufferers. One of the "rights" of women in this country is perfect impunity in the practice or in the attempt of any rudeness they may fancy to commit; and yet these Boston "ladies" were guilty of a real offence, and if they had been men, would have been called to account for their misconduct. To illustrate the principle involved, suppose a couple of men meet in the street a couple of women so strongly scented with musk or other perfume from the toilet, (as many of them are,) as to be offensive and pollute the air with a disagreeable odor, and these men should quietly eject from the sidewalk or sprinkle with a disinfectant the objects of their dislike, would such an action be looked upon as gentlemanly, the perpetrators treated with smiles, and the sufferers prevented from resenting the insult? For ourselves, we can't see the difference between the cigar and musk nuisance, and if one is to be tolerated as a "right," the other ought to have the same chance. If the women are to use their parasols, the men must resort to the sprinkler.

A CARD.—The undersigned, being satisfied of the fact, that the Protection Insurance Company, of Hartford, Conn., has made an assignment, deems it his duty to his patrons and friends, to announce the fact, unpleasant and unexpected, as the necessity is to him. If those holding policies in the Protection will call at my office, the best arrangement possible, for their transfer into other companies, shall at once be made. I should be unjust to myself, and ungrateful to my customers, did I not take this occasion to return my sincerest thanks for the handsome, courteous, and generous manner in which I have been treated, by those with whom I have conversed on the subject, since yesterday morning, when the fact first became known to me.

GEORGE S. DODGE.

Judge Spooner is a man of unimpeachable integrity, of excellent mind, of approved knowledge as a legislator, and has long since won the respect of political friends and enemies. His nomination, too, must have been a free-will offering of the delegates, for he would never stoop to beg an office, nor will he stoop to work for his election, in the usual manner of mere politicians. His opinions will be given without reserve, and he will leave the rest to others. If elected, he will be, we think, an industrious member of congress. We know he will be an honest one, but he will never be one of those who will make money out of the berth.—Standard.

The Standard does a manly and honorable act in thus frankly bearing testimony to the merits of Judge Spooner. We hope we shall not have equal reason to endorse the correctness of its opinion that a local feeling and vote in Milwaukee will defeat him, though we are aware that elections in former years seem to warrant it.

ACCIDENT.—The morning stage from this city to Afion Wednesday morning was overturned near the residence of Mr. J. P. Sears, on the river, and several of the passengers injured. Among the passengers were Judge Holmes, one of the earliest settlers of the town, his wife, and Mrs. Volney Atwood (a daughter of Judge H.) and child. The family had started on a visit to friends in Michigan, and left in the morning stage in order to reach their destination before night. The shoulder of Mrs. Holmes was dislocated, and other injuries inflicted, and Judge H. and Mrs. Atwood and child were slightly bruised. Mrs. H. was taken to the house of Mr. Sears, where she received proper treatment, and her husband and daughter remained to attend her.

FOND DU LAC UNION.—This paper gives outward signs of prosperity. The last number came to us in a new dress, and with a general look of satisfaction with itself and the world. Mr. Thomas, the founder of it, has associated Mr. A. J. Reed with him in its publication, and will aim to give it additional claims to a remunerating support. Its politics are not according to our way of thinking, but its political discussions are conducted with good temper and as near fairness as we expect generally to find in a paper which supports the Nebraska side of the question now before the people.

MERCHANDISE FOR JANEVILLE.—Per steamer Arctic, at Milwaukee, Eestorn & Bro. and O. B. Foote; per propeller Forest City, R. Hodge and J. A. Wood.

VERMONT.—This state has gone right without any doubt; the only question is by how great a majority, and this we leave to be told hereafter.

A FRIENDLY WORD TO LADIES.—We are no advocates of arts and attitudes practiced before the glass, but if ladies will raise their dresses in the streets—as it is evident they will—it is important that they should do it skillfully, daintily, and in such a manner as to display neither more or less than is intended. As a modest man, therefore, we would have them perfect themselves in the practice at home. A day or two since, we saw a divinity transformed into a dud, for neglecting to do this. In walking from Rockwood's to State street with her dress raised to about the standard altitude, instead of displaying a pretty foot and ankle, immoderate hose and snowy dimity, as she evidently intended, she showed merely a handbreadth of yellow flannel.—Springfield Republican.

WISCONSIN.—The whigs continue to show their dishonesty and insincerity in proclaiming the Nebraska question the principal issue in the election of members of congress. The entire Wisconsin delegation, it is well known, opposed and voted against the bill in all its stages. But notwithstanding this, the whigs have held what they call a republican convention in the first district, and nominated Wyman Spooner, Esq., of Walworth county, as their candidate for congress. The notorious S. M. Booth was his principal competitor. This action, in connection with others of the same sort, show the animus of the whig leaders. If they can make the anti-Nebraska excitement subservient to their own purposes, it is all well. But the democrats of Wisconsin have no occasion to vote for a whig. Their own men are "good and true" on this question, and it is their duty to sustain them.—Chicago Democrat.

This is all very well for Mr. Wentworth "to say to the masses," but no one knows better than he how the Wisconsin delegation halted, and how they would have voted, had they dared, upon the Nebraska bill.

Had Mr. Pierce been in need of their votes, he could have gotten them as certainly as he could that of Mr. Wentworth, himself. It is not such representatives, the people of Wisconsin want. The anti-Nebraska party must have candidates like Caesar's wife, "above suspicion," and they are not going to permit the cause of freedom by trusting any other.

Does our neighbor suppose that the people are ignorant of the hesitancy and non-commitment of Mr. Wells on this question, up to the last moment? or that they have such unbounded confidence in the purity, integrity and honesty of John B. Macy, that they will have no one else to represent his district but him?

Mr. W. is not going to pick his way back into congress with any such skeleton key as that, and he might as well make up his mind to it.

Wisconsin will do the fair thing with her representatives. We have every confidence in that noble young state. Most of her politicians thus far, have been a disgrace to her.

Her people are right and will redeem themselves in the coming struggle. Wisconsin has the honor of being the first state to strike the first blow, at the loathsome fugitive slave bill. Her chief justice has done her exalted honor among the free states of the north, and she will do herself additional honor by sloughing off the dead skin politicians, which meanly and tamely represent her in congress, and whom Mr. Wentworth is seized with such a sudden admiration for.

How could the republicans of the first district nominate a man who was put up by the hunkers to defeat Charles Durkee, the best representative Wisconsin ever had! The only one of this "entire Wisconsin delegation" who seems to have acted with any manliness or honesty on the Nebraska question was Ben. C. Eastman, of the second district. If we remember right Mr. John B. Macy, came among the "absent or not voting" on this bill. Does Mr. Wentworth have any such recollection?

It will never do. These indifferent gentlemen are not wanted any longer at Washington. Much less are those wanted who go nosing around to see which way matters are likely to turn, and what kind of a vote will fill the largest pocket.—Chicago Journal.

The New York Tribune comes to us on a smaller sheet than usual, but it is still large enough; pay, too large at the price at which it is sold. The Tribune is the leading newspaper in this country, and we commend the prudence of its proprietors in cutting down in size rather than incurring a daily loss. Its collapse would be a great loss to the country. But we are glad the Tribune has failed in the experiment of printing and publishing an immense sheet at a less price than the cost of the white paper. Influential as that paper is for good, it is not the only newspaper the country needs; but its extraordinary cheapness seriously damaged and crippled the great mass of newspapers throughout the country, and especially those necessary and useful organs located in nearly every thriving village throughout the state. They cannot use a large sheet, purchase a twenty thousand dollar press, or employ a dozen editors and reporters, and of course do not expect more than a local circulation. But this is generally so small as to barely let the publisher live, because a larger and a better paper can be had for less than subscribers could buy the white sheets of the paper maker. Now we have always rejoiced at the success of the Tribune, and we believe that and other newspapers would do still better by quitting the present ruinous rivalry and allowing newspapers to exist throughout the country as well as in the city of New York.—Rock Dem.

LATER FROM EUROPE.—The Niagara, with Liverpool dates to September 2d, three days later, arrived at Halifax Tuesday night, and her news was received at the Sentinel office and issued in an extra yesterday morning. The abundant promise of the English harvests has caused a heavy decline in breadstuffs, which seriously affected the market here and in New York, yesterday. The chances are that prices will continue to fall, though the home market will ensure our Wisconsin farmers remunerating rates for all that they have to sell.

The only news of political interest are the destruction and abandonment of Bomerund, and the expulsion of Queen Christina from Spain. Commercially the news is highly favorable. Consols have advanced, money is easy and business active. This too had its effect on the New York money market yesterday; stocks having advanced largely.

We think the favorable accounts of the foreign money market of much greater consequence to the United States at the present time, than would be the news of a large advance, instead of a considerable decline in breadstuffs.—Sentinel, yesterday.

SALE OF PROPERTY IN FULTON.—The property known as the "Cawker Estate," situated in the village of Fulton, consisting of a flourishing mill, a large quantity of village lots and about 350 acres of land adjoining said village. The above property was purchased by a Mr. Cunningham, of Lake Co., Ohio, for the sum of $12,600. The purchaser has returned to Ohio for his family, and is to have full possession on the 18th inst. It is the intention of the purchaser to immediately repair and improve said property, and put the mill in a condition to do an extensive flouring business.—Standard.

PRICE OF POTATOES.—This popular and almost indispensable article of food is destined to command unequalled all signs fall, an extraordinary price throughout the ensuing year. The crop is generally lighted, and in many sections an almost total failure. At this early day, and when there should be abundance, if ever, prices are relatively higher than they were ever known at this season of the year. In New York they sell at $1.75 to $2; Philadelphia, $1.50 to $1.75; Richmond, $1 to $1.50; Pittsburgh, $1.75 to $2; Cincinnati, $1.50 to $1.75; Springfield, Ohio, $1.40; Cleveland, $1.25; Columbus, Ohio, $2; Alton, $1.25 to $1.50; Springfield, $1; Peoria, $1.40; St. Louis, $1 to $1.25 per bushel.—St. Louis Intelligencer 7th.

MUSICAL CONVENTION AND FESTIVAL.

The "Janesville Musical Society" has engaged Prof. William B. Bradbury, of New York, the distinguished composer and teacher of music, to conduct a musical convention and festival to be held in this city, commencing on Monday, the 23d of October next, at 9 o'clock A. M., continuing three days and evenings, and concluding on Wednesday evening, October 26th, with a public concert.

Its design is the advancement of singers in musical knowledge, by the study and practice of church, concert, and secular music, combined with familiar lectures and criticisms.

The principal text-books used will be "The Shawm," and "The Metropolitan Glee Book."

Members of the convention from abroad will be entertained as guests of the "Janesville Musical Society," and upon their arrival will please present themselves to either of the reception committee, viz: John R. Beale, Sam'l A. Martin, John E. Babcock.

Terms of admission to the entire course for Gentlemen.....$2 00 Ladies.....1 00

Clergymen are cordially invited to attend free of charge. AMOS P. PRICHARD, Sec'y. Janesville, Sept. 8th, 1851. 2td

THE SECOND KANSAS PARTY.—The second party of emigrants for Kansas, sent out under the auspices of the emigrants aid society, passed through this city yesterday afternoon. They number about three hundred, including several females, wives of members of the party. They are a fine looking body, nearly all about in the prime of life, and possessed of courageous hearts and strong arms. They stopped only ten minutes at the depot, but that little time was not wasted. A large number of citizens crowded around the cars, when Hon. Wm. C. Bross came forward and presented the party with a large quarto bible and a package of spelling books; books with which New England men are apt to be familiar and prize highly. This gift was not made because of the supposed necessities of the party, but as emblematic of the religious and civil institutions which have the bible and education for their base, and which these emigrants are expected to aid in planting in Kansas. As such it was highly appropriate, and was most cordially accepted by the party. After the short speeches, congratulations and farewells were interchanged, when the citizens gave three times three for this little army of freedom, and they in return gave three cheers for Rochester, and as they were singing the "Kansas emigrant's song" the cars moved off, and they were again on their way to their homes in the west. God bless them!—Rochester Democrat.

NOVEL SCENE.—The ex-postmaster of Boston is in Germany. He sends home an account of a dinner to a railway congress, at which a locomotive appeared upon the table, to which was attached a train loaded with dishes of the choicest and most solid food. The succulent train advanced slowly, in imitation of the passenger trains upon all German roads. After having made the tour of the table without stopping, in order to give a view of the good things with which it was freighted, the train again started, making a station in front of each guest, and permitting him to fill his plate according to appetite and fancy. The trains followed each other in constant succession for two or three hours, departing each time well-loaded with comestibles, and always returning empty to the depot. This is just the thing for an American eating table, where the fashion is, according to English authority, to gulp every thing with railroad speed.

TO AVOID TROUBLE WITH NEIGHBORS.—Keep good fences and no breachy cattle. Few men can keep cool when their own corn fields and mowing lots are invaded by their own beast; much less they exercise patience and forbearance when it is another's animals that are making such havoc. If you have any unruly animal, and have in vain tried to mend his manners, but have succeeded only in getting yourself into hot water with your neighbors, the best course is to get rid of him entirely—this serves as a peace offering, when nothing short of it can bring back their good will.

HYGEANA.

BRONCHITIS, HOME TO THE DOOR OF THE MILLION. A wonderful discovery has recently been made by Dr. Curtis, of this city, in the treatment of consumption, asthma and all diseases of the lung. We refer to "Dr. Curtis' Hygeana, or Inhaling Hygean Vapor and Cherry Syrup." With this new method Dr. C. has restored many afflicted ones to perfect health; as an evidence of which he has innumerable certificates. Speaking of the treatment, a physician remarks: "It is evident that inhaling—constantly breathing an agreeable, healing vapor, the medicinal properties must come in direct contact with the whole of the arid cavity of the lungs, and thus escape the many and varied changes produced upon them when introduced into the stomach, and subjected to the process of digestion. The Hygeana is for sale at all the druggists throughout the country.—New York Dutchman of Jan. 14.

The Inhaler is worn on the breast under the linen without the least inconvenience—the heat of the body being sufficient to evaporate the fluid.

Hundreds of CASES of CURIES like the following might be named. One Package of Hygeana has cured me of the ASTHMA of six years standing.—Jas. F. Keenberry, P. M. of Duncannon, Pa.

ROCK COUNTY REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

The electors of Rock county who are determined to support no man for office who is not positively and fully committed to the support of the principles announced in the "Republican Platform" adopted at Madison on the 18th of July last, and whose personal character, political associations and private conduct, do not afford a guarantee that he is reliable, are invited to meet in their respective townships or wards at the place of holding the last township or ward election, on Tuesday, 10th day of October next, at 2 o'clock P. M. for the purpose of effecting a thorough organization of the Republican party in their towns or wards, and of appointing delegates to a county convention hereby called at the Court House in Janesville, on THURSDAY, the 12th day of October next, at 2 o'clock P. 17th SENATORIAL DISTRICT CONVENTION.

At the same time and place above designated in the respective towns and wards for meetings, to choose delegates to the county convention, the Republican electors of the wards of the city of Janesville, and of the towns in this county comprised in the 17th senatorial district, are requested to select an equal number of delegates to which they are entitled under the above appointment in the county convention, to represent them in a senatorial convention hereby called at the Court House in Janesville, on THURSDAY the 12th day of October next at 11 o'clock, A. M., to nominate a candidate for senator.

By order of the County Committee.

COUNTY FAIR.—We were able yesterday to make a flying visit to the fair grounds, but unable to make an examination of anything, or even see a large part of the articles on exhibition. The attendance was very large, and the fair generally a decided advance on any former one. Persons who were at the state fair at Watertown last fall, report this as superior to it. We shall publish as soon as we receive them, the proceedings of the society on the grounds, the result of the plowing and spading matches, and the award of premiums to exhibitors.

We are glad to notice that the work upon the upper bridge has been resumed. How long it will take to accomplish it thus by piecemeal, it is hard to calculate. Its condition for a long time past has been far creditable to the city, and it has been no small obstruction to business and travel. We hope to see the work prosecuted with energy, that it may be available for a portion of the business season.

The work of paving Main street is progressing finely, and we believe is of a substantial and durable character, reflecting credit upon the energetic contractor.

If the several factions of the "democracy" of this state have an occasional "bout" between discordant parts, there is a pleasant agreement among concurring sections. Here is an instance. The Waukesha Plaindealer, in the course of friendly notice of senator Isaac P. Walker, says:—

"His influence, aside from that given him by his vote, has amounted to nothing, and he has in the main, played only the part of a figure in a tailor's window—a lifeless representation of what he was not."

This sentiment the Racine County Democrat quotes, and thus endorses:

"Pity 'tis, 'tis true." But yet, now that the man is dead, would it not be more christianlike to allow him to 'depart in peace'?"

That is harmony, sure, whether it is truth, or not.

One of Dr. Elder's sharp sayings is "that the democratic party holds the government from the proprietors in fee, and the whig party has a sort of tinker's lien upon it for repairs."

Insignificant as our "democratic" brothers seem to consider the lien upon their estate, the property encumbered is unable to pay the demand against it and is about to pass into other hands to satisfy the claims created by their mismanagement and abuse of trust.

"WISCONSIN HOME."—The first number of this paper has been laid upon our table. It is well printed, conveniently "made up" for binding, and is certainly worth the money asked for it. Our readers are familiar with its character, its prospectus having been published for some weeks in our columns. We hope Mr. Doty will find his "Home" not only a pleasant, but a profitable enterprise.

STAGE OFFICE.—The stage office is now kept in the old post office, next door to the American hotel, where the railroad office is also kept. The room has been neatly refitted, and is very convenient for travelers, whose wants will be well attended to by Messrs. Keeler and Davis.

We have examined a superb set of coach harness, intended for exhibition at the fair, made at the shop of J. M. Rikor, of this city. The work was mostly executed by Mr. W. S. Chase, and as a specimen of fine, costly workmanship, it is superior to any thing of the kind we have before seen.

MAINE ELECTION.—The telegraph continues to report an anti-Nebraska triumph. Morrill elected governor by the people, and legislature "all right." Congressmen, ditto. Remembering that our best news comes first, we had rather wait and see the full returns, before rejoicing too hard.

No SMOG.—As two young gentlemen were walking up Tremont street, yesterday afternoon, each puffing furiously a cigar, they came in close neighborhood with two well dressed ladies, who evinced anything but pleasure at the fumigation. As the two parties came abreast of each other, in passing, one of the ladies very dexterously, with her parasol, knocked the cigar out of the mouth of one of the bloated, which striking the cheek of the other, caused quite a blister to manifest itself. The spectators laughed—the young ladies quietly smiled—the young chaps looked various ways—but every one present saw that the lady had too strong a cause to back-her (tolacco) to prevent any hostile demonstrations on the part of the male sufferers.—Boston Times.

We can understand how an incident of this character could please a crowd in the street, and why "hostile demonstrations" should be foreborne on the part of the sufferers. One of the "rights" of women in this country is perfect impunity in the practice or in the attempt of any rudeness they may fancy to commit; and yet these Boston "ladies" were guilty of a real offence, and if they had been men, would have been called to account for their misconduct. To illustrate the principle involved, suppose a couple of men meet in the street a couple of women so strongly scented with musk or other perfume from the toilet, (as many of them are,) as to be offensive and pollute the air with a disagreeable odor, and these men should quietly eject from the sidewalk or sprinkle with a disinfectant the objects of their dislike, would such an action be looked upon as gentlemanly, the perpetrators treated with smiles, and the sufferers prevented from resenting the insult? For ourselves, we can't see the difference between the cigar and musk nuisance, and if one is to be tolerated as a "right," the other ought to have the same chance. If the women are to use their parasols, the men must resort to the sprinkler.

A CARD.—The undersigned, being satisfied of the fact, that the Protection Insurance Company, of Hartford, Conn., has made an assignment, deems it his duty to his patrons and friends, to announce the fact, unpleasant and unexpected, as the necessity is to him. If those holding policies in the Protection will call at my office, the best arrangement possible, for their transfer into other companies, shall at once be made. I should be unjust to myself, and ungrateful to my customers, did I not take this occasion to return my sincerest thanks for the handsome, courteous, and generous manner in which I have been treated, by those with whom I have conversed on the subject, since yesterday morning, when the fact first became known to me.

GEORGE S. DODGE.

Judge Spooner is a man of unimpeachable integrity, of excellent mind, of approved knowledge as a legislator, and has long since won the respect of political friends and enemies. His nomination, too, must have been a free-will offering of the delegates, for he would never stoop to beg an office, nor will he stoop to work for his election, in the usual manner of mere politicians. His opinions will be given without reserve, and he will leave the rest to others. If elected, he will be, we think, an industrious member of congress. We know he will be an honest one, but he will never be one of those who will make money out of the berth.—Standard.

The Standard does a manly and honorable act in thus frankly bearing testimony to the merits of Judge Spooner. We hope we shall not have equal reason to endorse the correctness of its opinion that a local feeling and vote in Milwaukee will defeat him, though we are aware that elections in former years seem to warrant it.

ACCIDENT.—The morning stage from this city to Afion Wednesday morning was overturned near the residence of Mr. J. P. Sears, on the river, and several of the passengers injured. Among the passengers were Judge Holmes, one of the earliest settlers of the town, his wife, and Mrs. Volney Atwood (a daughter of Judge H.) and child. The family had started on a visit to friends in Michigan, and left in the morning stage in order to reach their destination before night. The shoulder of Mrs. Holmes was dislocated, and other injuries inflicted, and Judge H. and Mrs. Atwood and child were slightly bruised. Mrs. H. was taken to the house of Mr. Sears, where she received proper treatment, and her husband and daughter remained to attend her.

FOND DU LAC UNION.—This paper gives outward signs of prosperity. The last number came to us in a new dress, and with a general look of satisfaction with itself and the world. Mr. Thomas, the founder of it, has associated Mr. A. J. Reed with him in its publication, and will aim to give it additional claims to a remunerating support. Its politics are not according to our way of thinking, but its political discussions are conducted with good temper and as near fairness as we expect generally to find in a paper which supports the Nebraska side of the question now before the people.

MERCHANDISE FOR JANEVILLE.—Per steamer Arctic, at Milwaukee, Eestorm & Bro. and O. B. Foote; per propeller Forest City, R. Hodge and J. A. Wood.

VERMONT.—This state has gone right without any doubt; the only question is by how great a majority, and this we leave to be told hereafter.

A FRIENDLY WORD TO LADIES.—We are no advocates of arts and attitudes practiced before the glass, but if ladies will raise their dresses in the streets—as it is evident they will—it is important that they should do it skillfully, daintily, and in such a manner as to display neither more or less than is intended. As a modest man, therefore, we would have them perfect themselves in the practice at home. A day or two since, we saw a divinity transformed into a dud, for neglecting to do this. In walking from Rockwood's to State street with her dress raised to about the standard altitude, instead of displaying a pretty foot and ankle, immoderate hose and snowy dimity, as she evidently intended, she showed merely a handbreadth of yellow flannel.—Springfield Republican.

WISCONSIN.—The whigs continue to show their dishonesty and insincerity in proclaiming the Nebraska question the principal issue in the election of members of congress. The entire Wisconsin delegation, it is well known, opposed and voted against the bill in all its stages. But notwithstanding this, the whigs have held what they call a republican convention in the first district, and nominated Wyman Spooner, Esq., of Walworth county, as their candidate for congress. The notorious S. M. Booth was his principal competitor. This action, in connection with others of the same sort, show the animus of the whig leaders. If they can make the anti-Nebraska excitement subservient to their own purposes, it is all well. But the democrats of Wisconsin have no occasion to vote for a whig. Their own men are "good and true" on this question, and it is their duty to sustain them.—Chicago Democrat.

This is all very well for Mr. Wentworth "to say to the marines," but no one knows better than he how the Wisconsin delegation halted, and how they would have voted, had they dared, upon the Nebraska bill.

Had Mr. Pierce been in need of their votes, he could have gotten them as certainly as he could that of Mr. Wentworth, himself. It is not such representatives, the people of Wisconsin want. The anti-Nebraska party must have candidates like Caesar's wife, "above suspicion," and they are not going to permit the cause of freedom by trusting any other.

Does our neighbor suppose that the people are ignorant of the hesitancy and non-commitment of Mr. Wells on this question, up to the last moment? or that they have such unbounded confidence in the purity, integrity and honesty of John B. Macy, that they will have no one else to represent his district but him?

Mr. W. is not going to pick his way back into congress with any such skeleton key as that, and he might as well make up his mind to it.

Wisconsin will do the fair thing with her representatives. We have every confidence in that noble young state. Most of her politicians thus far, have been a disgrace to her.

Her people are right and will redeem themselves in the coming struggle. Wisconsin has the honor of being the first state to strike the first blow, at the loathsome fugitive slave bill. Her chief justice has done her exalted honor among the free states of the north, and she will do herself additional honor by sloughing off the dead skin politicians, which meanly and tamely represent her in congress, and whom Mr. Wentworth is seized with such a sudden admiration for.

How could the republicans of the first district nominate a man who was put up by the hunkers to defeat Charles Durkee, the best representative Wisconsin ever had! The only one of this "entire Wisconsin delegation" who seems to have acted with any manliness or honesty on the Nebraska question was Ben. C. Eastman, of the second district. If we remember right Mr. John B. Macy, came among the "absent or not voting" on this bill. Does Mr. Wentworth have any such recollection?

It will never do. These indifferent gentlemen are not wanted any longer at Washington. Much less are those wanted who go nosing around to see which way matters are likely to turn, and what kind of a vote will fill the largest pocket.—Chicago Journal.

The New York Tribune comes to us on a smaller sheet than usual, but it is still large enough; pay, too large at the price at which it is sold. The Tribune is the leading newspaper in this country, and we commend the prudence of its proprietors in cutting down in size rather than incurring a daily loss. Its collapse would be a great loss to the country. But we are glad the Tribune has failed in the experiment of printing and publishing an immense sheet at a less price than the cost of the white paper. Influential as that paper is for good, it is not the only newspaper the country needs; but its extraordinary cheapness seriously damaged and crippled the great mass of newspapers throughout the country, and especially those necessary and useful organs located in nearly every thriving village throughout the state. They cannot use a large sheet, purchase a twenty thousand dollar press, or employ a dozen editors and reporters, and of course do not expect more than a local circulation. But this is generally so small as to barely let the publisher live, because a larger and a better paper can be had for less than subscribers could buy the white sheets of the paper maker. Now we have always rejoiced at the success of the Tribune, and we believe that and other newspapers would do still better by quitting the present ruinous rivalry and allowing newspapers to exist throughout the country as well as in the city of New York.—Rock Dem.

LATER FROM EUROPE.—The Niagara, with Liverpool dates to September 2d, three days later, arrived at Halifax Tuesday night, and her news was received at the Sentinel office and issued in an extra yesterday morning. The abundant promise of the English harvests has caused a heavy decline in breadstuffs, which seriously affected the market here and in New York, yesterday. The chances are that prices will continue to fall, though the home market will ensure our Wisconsin farmers remunerating rates for all that they have to sell.

The only news of political interest are the destruction and abandonment of Bomerund, and the expulsion of Queen Christina from Spain. Commercially the news is highly favorable. Consols have advanced, money is easy and business active. This too had its effect on the New York money market yesterday; stocks having advanced largely.

We think the favorable accounts of the foreign money market of much greater consequence to the United States at the present time, than would be the news of a large advance, instead of a considerable decline in breadstuffs.—Sentinel, yesterday.

SALE OF PROPERTY IN FULTON.—The property known as the "Cawker Estate," situated in the village of Fulton, consisting of a flourishing mill, a large quantity of village lots and about 350 acres of land adjoining said village. The above property was purchased by a Mr. Cunningham, of Lake Co., Ohio, for the sum of $12,600. The purchaser has returned to Ohio for his family, and is to have full possession on the 18th inst. It is the intention of the purchaser to immediately repair and improve said property, and put the mill in a condition to do an extensive flouring business.—Standard.

PRICE OF POTATOES.—This popular and almost indispensable article of food is destined to command unless all signs fail, an extraordinary price throughout the ensuing year. The crop is generally brightened, and in many sections an almost total failure. At this early day, and when there should be abundance, if ever, prices are relatively higher than they were ever known at this season of the year. In New York they sell at $1.76 to $2; Philadelphia, $1.50 to $1.75; Richmond, $1 to $1.50; Pittsburgh, $1.75 to $2; Cincinnati, $1.50 to $1.75; Springfield, Ohio, $1.40; Cleveland, $1.25; Columbus, Ohio, $2; Alton, $1.50 to $1.75; Springfield, $1; Peoria, $1.40; St. Louis, $1 to $1.25 per bushel.—St. Louis Intelligencer 7th.

MUSICAL CONVENTION AND FESTIVAL.

The "Janesville Musical Society" has engaged Prof. William B. Bradbury, of New York, the distinguished composer and teacher of music, to conduct a musical convention and festival to be held in this city, commencing on Monday, the 23d of October next, at 9 o'clock A. M., continuing three days and evenings, and concluding on Wednesday evening, October 26th, with a public concert.

Its design is the advancement of singers in musical knowledge, by the study and practice of church, concert, and secular music, combined with familiar lectures and criticisms.

The principal text-books used will be "The Shawm," and "The Metropolitan Glee Book."

Members of the convention from abroad will be entertained as guests of the "Janesville Musical Society," and upon their arrival will please present themselves to either of the reception committee, viz: John R. Beale, Sam'l A. Martin, John E. Babcock.

Terms of admission to the entire course for Gentlemen.....$2 00 Ladies.....1 00

Clergymen are cordially invited to attend free of charge. AMOS P. PRICHARD, Sec'y. Janesville, Sept. 8th, 1854. 2td

THE SECOND KANSAS PARTY.—The second party of emigrants for Kansas, sent out under the auspices of the emigrants aid society, passed through this city yesterday afternoon. They number about three hundred, including several females, wives of members of the party. They are a fine looking body, nearly all about in the prime of life, and possessed of courageous hearts and strong arms. They stopped only ten minutes at the depot, but that little time was not wasted. A large number of citizens crowded around the cars, when Hon. Wm. C. Bross came forward and presented the party with a large quarto bible and a package of spelling books; books with which New England men are apt to be familiar and prize highly. This gift was not made because of the supposed necessities of the party, but as emblematic of the religious and civil institutions which have the bible and education for their base, and which these emigrants are expected to aid in planting in Kansas. As such it was highly appropriate, and was most cordially accepted by the party. After the short speeches, congratulations and farewells were interchanged, when the citizens gave three times three for this little army of freedom, and they in return gave three cheers for Rochester, and as they were singing the "Kansas emigrant's song" the cars moved off, and they were again on their way to their homes in the west. God bless them!—Rochester Democrat.

NOVEL SCENE.—The ex-postmaster of Boston is in Germany. He sends home an account of a dinner to a railway congress, at which a locomotive appeared upon the table, to which was attached a train loaded with dishes of the choicest and most solid food. The succulent train advanced slowly, in imitation of the passenger trains upon all German roads. After having made the tour of the table without stopping, in order to give a view of the good things with which it was freighted, the train again started, making a station in front of each guest, and permitting him to fill his plate according to appetite and fancy. The trains followed each other in constant succession for two or three hours, departing each time well-loaded with comestibles, and always returning empty to the depot. This is just the thing for an American eating table, where the fashion is, according to English authority, to gulp every thing with railroad speed.

TO AVOID TROUBLE WITH NEIGHBORS.—Keep good fences and no breachy cattle. Few men can keep cool when their own corn fields and mowing lots are invaded by their own beast; much less they exercise patience and forbearance when it is another's animals that are making such havoc. If you have any unruly animal, and have in vain tried to mend his manners, but have succeeded only in getting yourself into hot water with your neighbors, the best course is to get rid of him entirely—this serves as a peace offering, when nothing short of it can bring back their good will.

HYGEANA.

BRONCHITIS, HOME TO THE DOOR OF THE MILLION. A wonderful discovery has recently been made by Dr. Curtis, of this city, in the treatment of consumption, asthma and all diseases of the lung. We refer to "Dr. Curtis' Hygeana, or Inhaling Hygean Vapor and Cherry Syrup." With this new method Dr. C. has restored many afflicted ones to perfect health; as an evidence of which he has innumerable certificates. Speaking of the treatment, a physician remarks: "It is evident that inhaling—constantly breathing an agreeable, healing vapor, the medicinal properties must come in direct contact with the whole of the arid cavity of the lungs, and thus escape the many and varied changes produced upon them when introduced into the stomach, and subjected to the process of digestion. The Hygeana is for sale at all the druggists' throughout the country.—New York Dutchman of Jan. 14.

The Inhaler is worn on the breast under the linen without the least inconvenience—the heat of the body being sufficient to evaporate the fluid. Hundreds of CASES OF CURIES like the following might be named. One Package of Hygeana has cured me of the ASTHMA of six years standing.—Jas. F. Keenberry, P. M. of Duncannon, Pa. I am cured of the ASTHMA of 10 years standing by Dr. Curtis' Hygeana.—Margaret Easton, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Mr. Paul of No. 5 Mammoth St., N. Y., was cured of a severe case of Bronchitis by the Hygeana. My sister has been cured of a DISTRESSING COUGH of several years standing, and decided to be incurable by her Physicians. She was CURED IN ONE MONTH by the Hygeana.—J. H. Gaudert, P. M., Richmond, Me.

ROCK COUNTY REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

The electors of Rock county who are determined to support no man for office who is not positively and fully committed to the support of the principles announced in the "Republican Platform" adopted at Madison on the 13th of July last, and whose personal character, political associations and private conduct, do not afford a guarantee that he is reliable, are invited to meet in their respective townships or wards at the place of holding the last township or ward election, on Tuesday, 10th day of October next, at 2 o'clock P. M., for the purpose of effecting a thorough organization of the Republican party in their towns and wards, and of appointing delegates to a county convention hereafter called at the Court House in Janesville, on THURSDAY, the 12th day of October next, at 2 o'clock P. 17th SENATORIAL DISTRICT CONVENTION.

At the same time and place above designated in the respective towns and wards for meetings, to choose delegates to the county convention, the Republican electors of the wards of the city of Janesville, and of the towns in this county comprised in the 17th senatorial district, are requested to select an equal number of delegates to which they are entitled under the above appointment in the county convention, to represent them in a senatorial convention hereby called at the Court House in Janesville, on THURSDAY the 12th day of October next at 11 o'clock, A. M., to nominate a candidate for senator.

By order of the County Committee.

COUNTY FAIR.—We were able yesterday to make a flying visit to the fair grounds, but unable to make an examination of anything, or even see a large part of the articles on exhibition. The attendance was very large, and the fair generally a decided advance on any former one. Persons who were at the state fair at Watertown last fall, report this as superior to it. We shall publish as soon as we receive them, the proceedings of the society on the grounds, the result of the plowing and spading matches, and the award of premiums to exhibitors.

WE are glad to notice that the work upon the upper bridge has been resumed. How long it will take to accomplish it thus by piecemeal, it is hard to calculate. Its condition for a long time past has been far from creditable to the city, and it has been no small obstruction to business and travel. We hope to see the work prosecuted with energy, that it may be available for a portion of the business season.

The work of paving Main street is progressing finely, and we believe is of a substantial and durable character, reflecting credit upon the energetic contractor.

IF the several factions of the "democracy" of this state have an occasional "bout" between discordant parts, there is a pleasant agreement among concurring sections. Here is an instance. The Waukesha Plaindealer, in the course of friendly notice of senator Isaac P. Walker, says—

"His influence, aside from that given him by his vote, has amounted to nothing, and he has in the main, played only the part of a figure in a tailor's window—a lifeless representation of what he was not."

This sentiment the Racine County Democrat quotes, and thus endorses:

"Pity 'tis, 'tis true." But yet, now that the man is dead, would it not be more christianlike to allow him to 'depart in peace'?"

That is harmony, sure, whether it is truth, or not.

One of Dr. Elder's sharp sayings is "that the democratic party holds the government from the proprietors in fee, and the whig party has a sort of linker's lien upon it for repairs."

Insignificant as our "democratic" brothers seem to consider the lien upon their estate, the property encumbered is unable to pay the demand against it and is about to pass into other hands to satisfy the claims created by their mismanagement and abuse of trust.

"WISCONSIN HOPE."—The first number of this paper has been laid upon our table. It is well printed, conveniently "made up" for binding, and is certainly worth the money asked for it. Our readers are familiar with its character, its prospectus having been published for some weeks in our columns. We hope Mr. Doty will find his "Homo" not only a pleasant, but a profitable enterprise.

STAGE OFFICE.—The stage office is now kept in the old post office, next door to the American hotel, where the railroad office is also kept. The room has been neatly refitted, and is very convenient for travelers, whose wants will be well attended to by Messrs. Keeler and Davis.

WE have examined a superb set of coach harness, intended for exhibition at the fair, made at the shop of J. M. Riker, of this city. The work was mostly executed by Mr. W. S. Chase, and as a specimen of fine, costly workmanship, it is superior to any thing of the kind we have before seen.

MAINE ELECTION.—The telegraph continues to report an anti-Nebraska triumph. Morrill elected governor by the people, and legislature "all right." Congressmen, ditto. Remembering that our best news comes first, we had rather wait and see the full returns, before rejoicing too hard.

NO SMOKING.—As two young gentlemen were walking up Tremont street, yesterday afternoon, each puffing furiously a cigar, they came in close neighborhood with two well dressed ladies, who, enquiring anything but pleasure at the fumigation. As the two parties came abreast of each other, in passing, one of the ladies very dexterously, with her parasol, knocked the cigar out of the mouth of one of the bloated, which striking the cheek of the other, caused quite a blister to manifest itself. The spectators laughed—the young ladies, quietly smiled—the young chaps looked various ways—but every one present saw that the lady had too strong a cause to back her (to say the least) to prevent any hostile demonstrations on the part of the male sufferers.—Boston Times.

We can understand how an incident of this character could please a crowd in the street, and why "hostile demonstrations" should be foreborne on the part of the sufferers. One of the "rights" of women in this country is perfect impunity in the practice or in the attempt of any rudeness they may fancy to commit; and yet these Boston "ladies" were guilty of a real offence, and if they had been men, would have been called to account for their misconduct. To illustrate the principle involved, suppose a couple of men meet in the street a couple of women so strongly scented with musk or other perfume from the toilet, (as many of them are,) as to be offensive and pollute the air with a disagreeable odor, and these men should quietly eject from the sidewalk or sprinkle with a disinfectant the objects of their dislike, would such an action be looked upon as gentlemanly, the perpetrators treated with smiles, and the sufferers prevented from resenting the insult?

For ourselves, we can't see the difference between the cigar and musk nuisance, and if one is to be tolerated as a "right," the other ought to have the same chance. If the women are to use their parasols, the men must resort to the sprinkler.

A CARD.—The undersigned, being satisfied of the fact, that the Protection Insurance Company, of Hartford, Conn., has made an assignment, deems it his duty to his patrons and friends, to announce the fact, unpleasant and unexpected, as the necessity is to him. If those holding policies in the Protection will call at my office, the best arrangement possible, for their transfer into other companies, shall at once be made. I should be unjust to myself, and ungrateful to my customers, did I not take this occasion to return my sincerest thanks for the handsome, courteous, and generous manner in which I have been treated, by those with whom I have conversed on the subject, since yesterday morning, when the fact first became known to me.

GEORGE S. DODGE.

Judge Spooner is a man of unimpeachable integrity, of excellent mind, of approved knowledge as a legislator, and has long since won the respect of political friends and enemies. His nomination, too, must have been a free-will offering of the delegates, for he would never stoop to beg an office, nor will he stoop to work for his election, in the usual manner of mere politicians. His opinions will be given without reserve, and he will leave the rest to others. He elected, he will be, we think, an industrious member of congress. We know he will be an honest one, but he will never be one of those who will make money out of the berth.—Standard.

The Standard does a manly and honorable act in thus frankly bearing testimony to the merits of Judge Spooner. We hope we shall not have equal reason to endorse the correctness of its opinion that a local feeling and vote in Milwaukee will defeat him, though we are aware that elections in former years seem to warrant it.

ACCIDENT.—The morning stage from this city to Alton Wednesday morning was overturned near the residence of Mr. J. P. Sears, on the river, and several of the passengers injured. Among the passengers were Judge Holmes, one of the earliest settlers of the town, his wife, and Mrs. Volney Atwood (a daughter of Judge H.) and child. The family had started on a visit to friends in Michigan, and left in the morning stage in order to reach their destination before night. The shoulder of Mrs. Holmes was dislocated, and other injuries inflicted, and Judge H. and Mrs. Atwood and child were slightly bruised. Mrs. H. was taken to the house of Mr. Sears, where she received proper treatment, and her husband and daughter remained to attend her.

FOND DU LAC USTON.—This paper gives outland signs of prosperity. The last number came to us in a new dress, and with a general look of satisfaction with itself and the world. Mr. Thomas, the founder of it, has associated Mr. A. J. Reed with him in its publication, and will aim to give it additional claims to a remunerating support. Its politics are not according to our way of thinking, but its political discussions are conducted with good temper and as near fairness as we expect generally to find in a paper which supports the Nebraska side of the question now before the people.

MERCHANDISE FOR JANESVILLE.—Per steamer Arctic, at Milwaukee, Easton & Bro. and O. B. Foote; per propeller Forest City, R. Hodge and J. A. Wood.

VERMONT.—This state has gone right without any doubt; the only question is by how great a majority, and this we leave to be told hereafter.

A FRIENDLY WORD TO LADIES.—We are no advocates of arts and attitudes practiced before the glass, but if ladies will raise their dresses in the street—as it is evident they will—it is important that they should do it skillfully, daintily, and in such a manner as to display neither more or less than is intended. As a modest man, therefore, we would have them perfect themselves in the practice at home. A day or two since, we saw a divinity transformed into a dowdy for neglecting to do this. In walking from Rockwood's to State street with her dress raised to about the standard altitude, instead of displaying a pretty foot and ankle, immaculate hose and snowy daintiness, she evidently intended, she showed merely a hand-breadth of yellow flannel.—Springfield Republican.

WISCONSIN.—The whigs continue to show their dishonesty and insincerity in proclaiming the Nebraska question the principal issue in the election of members of congress. The entire Wisconsin delegation, it is well known, opposed and voted against the bill in all its stages. But notwithstanding this, the whigs have held what they call a republican convention in the first district, and nominated Wyman Spooner, Esq., of Walworth county, as their candidate for congress. The notorious S. M. Booth was his principal competitor. This action, in connection with others of the same sort, show the animus of the whig leaders. If they can make the anti-Nebraska excitement subservient to their own purposes, it is all well. But the democrats of Wisconsin have no occasion to vote for a whig. Their own men are "good and true" on this question, and it is their duty to sustain them.—Chicago Democrat.

This is all very well for Mr. Wentworth "to say to the marines," but no one knows better than he how the Wisconsin delegation halted, and how they would have voted, had they dared, upon the Nebraska bill.

Had Mr. Pierce been in need of their votes, he could have gotten them as certainly as he could that of Mr. Wentworth, himself. It is not such representatives, the people of Wisconsin want. The anti-Nebraska party must have candidates like Caesar's wife, "above suspicion," and they are not going to peril the cause of freedom by trusting any other.

Does our neighbor suppose that the people are ignorant of the hesitancy and non-commitment of Mr. Wells on this question, up to the last moment? or that they have such unbounded confidence in the purity, integrity and honesty of John B. Macy, that they will have no one else to represent his district but him?

Mr. W. is not going to pick his way back into congress with any such skeleton key as that, and he might as well make up his mind to it. Wisconsin will do the fair thing with her representatives. We have every confidence in that noble young state. Most of her politicians thus far, have been a disgrace to her.

Her people are right and will redeem themselves in the coming struggle. Wisconsin has the honor of being the first state to strike the first blow, at the loathsome fugitive slave bill. Her chief justice has done her exalted honor among the free states of the north, and she will do herself additional honor by sloughing off the dead skin politicians, which meanly and tamely represent her in congress, and whom Mr. Wentworth is seized with such a sudden admiration for.

How could the republicans of the first district nominate a man who was put up by the bankers to defeat Charles Durkee, the best representative Wisconsin ever had? The only one of this "entire Wisconsin delegation" who seems to have acted with any manliness or honesty on the Nebraska question was Ben. C. Eastman, of the second district. If we remember right Mr. John B. Macy, came among the "absent or not voting," on this bill. Does Mr. Wentworth have any such recollection?

It will never do. These indifferent gentlemen are not wanted any longer at Washington. Much less are those wanted who go nosing around to see which way matters are likely to turn, and what kind of a vote will fill the largest pocket.—Chicago Journal.

The New York Tribune comes to us on a smaller sheet than usual, but it is still large enough; nay, too large at the price at which it is sold. The Tribune is the leading newspaper in this country, and we commend the prudence of its proprietors in cutting down its size rather than incurring a daily loss. Its collapse would be a great loss to the country. But we are glad the Tribune has failed in the experiment of printing and publishing an immense sheet at a less price than the cost of the white paper. Influential as that paper is for good, it is not the only newspaper the country needs; but its extraordinary cheapness seriously damaged and crippled the great mass of newspapers throughout the country, and especially those necessary and useful organs located in nearly every thriving village throughout the state. They cannot use a large sheet, purchase a twenty thousand dollar press, or employ a dozen editors and reporters, and of course do not expect more than a local circulation. But this is generally so small as to barely let the publisher live, because a larger and a better paper can be had for less than subscribers could buy the white sheets of the paper maker. Now we have always rejoiced at the success of the Tribune, and we believe that and other newspapers would do still better by quitting the present ruinous rivalry and allowing newspapers to exist throughout the country as well as in the city of New York.—Rock Dem.

LATER FROM EUROPE.—The Niagara, with Liverpool dates to September 2d, three days later, arrived at Halifax Tuesday night, and her news was received at the Sentinel office and issued in an extra yesterday morning. The abundant promise of the English harvests has caused a heavy decline in breadstuffs, which seriously affected the market here and in New York, yesterday. The chances are that prices will continue to fall, though the home market will ensure our Wisconsin farmers remunerating rates for all that they have to sell.

They only news of political interest are the destruction and abandonment of Bomersund, and the expulsion of Queen Christina from Spain. Commercially the news is highly favorable. Consols have advanced, money is easy and business active. This too had its effect on the New York money market yesterday; stocks having advanced largely.

We think the favorable accounts of the foreign money market of much greater consequence to the United States at the present time, than would be the news of a large advance, instead of a considerable decline in breadstuffs.—Sentinel, yesterday.

SALE OF PROPERTY IN FULTON.—The property known as the "Cawker Estate," situated in the village of Fulton, consisting of a flouring mill, a large quantity of village lots and about 350 acres of land adjoining said village. The above property was purchased by a Mr. Cunningham, of Lake Co., Ohio, for the sum of $12,500. The purchaser has returned to Ohio for his family, and is to have full possession on the 18th inst. It is the intention of the purchaser to immediately repair and improve said property, and put the mill in a condition to do an extensive flouring business.—Standard.

PRICE OF POTATOES.—This popular and almost indispensable article of food is destined to command unless all signs fail, an extraordinary price throughout the ensuing year. The crop is generally blighted, and in many sections an almost total failure. At this early day, and when there should be abundance, if ever, prices are relatively higher than they were ever known at this season of the year. In New York they sell at $1.76 to $2; Philadelphia, $1.50 to $1.75; Richmond, $1 to $1.50; Pittsburgh, $1.75 to $2; Cincinnati, $1.50 to $1.75; Springfield, Ohio, $1.40; Cleveland, $1.25; Columbus, Ohio, $2; Alton, $1.51 to $2; Springfield, Ill.; Peoria, $1.40; St. Louis, $1 to $1.25 per bushel.—St. Louis Intelligencer 7th.

THE SECOND KANSAS PARTY.—The second party of emigrants for Kansas, sent out under the auspices of the emigrants aid society, passed through this city yesterday afternoon. They number about three hundred, including several females, wives of members of the party. They are a fine looking body, nearly all about in the prime of life, and possessed of courageous hearts and strong arms. They stopped only ten minutes at the depot, but that little time was not wasted. A large number of citizens crowded around the cars, when Hon. Wm. C. Bloss came forward and presented the party with a large quarto bible and a package of spelling books; books with which New England men are apt to be familiar and prize highly. This gift was not made because of the supposed necessities of the party, but as emblematic of the religious and civil institutions which have the bible and education for their base, and which these emigrants are expected to aid in planting in Kansas. As such it was highly appropriate, and was most cordially accepted by the party. After the short speeches, congratulations and farewells were interchanged, when the citizens gave three times three for this little army of freedom, and they in return gave three cheers for Rochester, and as they were singing the "Kansas emigrant's song" the cars moved off, and they were again on their way to their homes in the west. God bless them!—Rochester Democrat.

NOVEL SCENE.—The ex-postmaster of Boston is in Germany. He sends home an account of a dinner to a railway congress, at which a locomotive appeared upon the table, to which was attached a train loaded with dishes of the choicest and most solid food. The succulent train advanced slowly, in imitation of the passenger trains upon all German roads. After having made the tour of the table without stopping, in order to give a view of the good things with which it was freighted, the train again started, making a station in front of each guest, and permitting him to fill his plate according to appetite and fancy. The trains followed each other in constant succession for two or three hours, departing each time well-loaded with comestibles, and always returning empty to the depot. This is just the thing for an American eating table, where the fashion is, according to English authority, to gulp every thing with railroad speed.

TO AVOID TROUBLE WITH NEIGHBORS.—Keep good fences and no breachy cattle. Few men can keep cool when their own corn fields and mowing lands are invaded by their own beasts; much less they exercise patience and forbearance when it is another's animals that are making such havoc. If you have any unruly animal, and have in vain tried to mend his manners, but have succeeded only in getting yourself into hot water with your neighbors, the best course is to get rid of him entirely—this serves as a peace offering, when nothing short of it can bring back their good will.

HYGEANA.

BROUGHT HOME TO THE DOOR OF THE MILLION.
A wonderful discovery has recently been made by Dr. Curtis, of this city, in the treatment of consumption, asthma and all diseases of the lung. We refer to "Dr. Curtis' Hygeana, or Inhalant Hygeana Vapor and Cherry Syrup." With this new method Dr. C. has restored many afflicted ones to perfect health; as an evidence of which he has innumerable certificates. Speaking of the treatment, a physician remarks: It is evident that inhaling—constantly breathing an agreeable, healing vapor, the medicinal properties must come in direct contact with the whole of the arid cavity of the lungs, and thus escape the many and varied changes produced upon them when introduced into the stomach, and subjected to the process of digestion. The Hygeana is for sale at all the druggists' throughout the country.—New York Dutchman of Jan. 14.

The Inhaler is worn on the breast under the linen without the least inconvenience—the heat of the body being sufficient to evaporate the fluid.
Hundreds of CASES of CURES like the following might be named. One Package of Hygeana has cured me of the ASTHMA of six years standing.—Jas. F. Keenberry, P. M. of Duncannon, Pa.
I am cured of the ASTHMA of 10 years standing by Dr. Curtis' Hygeana.—Margaret Euston, Brooklyn, N. Y.
Mrs. Paul of No. 5 Mammoth St., N. Y., was cured of a severe case of Bronchitis by the Hygeana.
My sister has been cured of a DISTRESSING COUGH of several years standing, and decided to be incurable by her Physicians. She was CURED IN ONE MONTH by the Hygeana.—J. H. Gaubert, P. M., Richmond, Me.

Price three Dollars a Package.—Sold by CURTIS & PERKINS and BOYD & PAUL No. 149 Chambers St., N. Y.—A Package sent free by express to any part of the United States for Ten Dollars.
N. B.—Dr. Curtis' Hygeana is the ORIGINAL and ONLY GENUINE ARTICLE, all others are base imitations or vile and INJURIOUS counterfeits. Shun them as you would POISON.
